with a painful accident while driving on the old camp ground road last night.

Simms, in company with James Rigby, was out gathering mushrooms and was returning to the city between 7:30 and 8 o'clock.

It was very dark and Simms, who was driving, let the horse take its own course. Aa short distance above the Jethro bridge there is a small gutter crossing the road being covered with plank. The buggy missed the plank and dropped into the gutter, throwing both occupants out. Simms was picked up and taken to his home and Dr. Elliott summoned.

An examination showed that his collar bone and shoulder blade were broken and several other bones splintered. His injuries were not dressed until this morning and he is resting as easy as could be expected this afternoon.

Theh buggy passed over Rigby, but he was uninjured beyond a few bruises.

MAY GET A CALL.

It is Said Dr. L. F. Laverty, of Wellsville, May Receive a Call to Point Breeze.

The Pittsburg Dispatch has the following to say of Dr. L. F. Laverty, who has been mentioned as a probability for the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church, of this city:

Rev. L. F. Laverty, who preached in the Point Breeze Presbyterian church last Sunday and will preach in the First Presbyterian church of Alleghemy next Sunday, made a favorable impression. He is spoken of for the vacant pulpit of the Point Breeze church. This church has been without a pastor since the death of Rev. Dr. Solon Cobb last May.

Dr. Laverty was born in Finleyville, Washington county, and graduated from Lafayette college and the Western Theological seminary. He was licensed to preach by the Pittsburg presbytery in 1884, ordained the following year by the presbytery of Wooster and installed over the Preshe remained five years.

FRANCIS BARNES

WILL BE PROVIDED WITH A HOME VERY SOON.

Humane Officer Miller Has Found an Excellent Home for the Little Girl.

Humane Officer Miller has become weary of the constant jangle over the custody of little Francis Barnes, and has decided to dispose of the matter

He claims to be the only person, as the matter now stands, who has the right to dispose of the girl, since no INJURED steps were taken by the Barnes or any one else to get possession of the child through the proper channel, the Charles Simms, of Third street, met probate court, and he has at last found a home for the little girl.

The parties who propose taking the ing. girl do not reside in the city, but, according to the opinion of the officer, a most excellent family and the home which Francis will thus be provided with all that could be desired.

The matter will be up to the Barnes, or any one who might object to the action on the part of the officer, to take some action. Unless they go about it in the proper way it is likely nothing more will ever be heard of the case.

AT THE DRESDEN

A SMOKE CONSUMER HAS BEEN ADDED TO THE PLANT.

The Result is a Saving of at Least 30 Per Cent in the Matter of Fuel.

The Dresden pottery today completed the work of adding a new and very economical appliance to their already modern and up-to-date plant.

The apparatus is a new smoke consumer and is attached to the stack just above the boiler, and is intended to be run by steam, although Engineer George Btt has attached a belt to the machine and gets good results in that way, but the machine will run faster and more satisfactory when propelled by steam.

The smoke is caught immediately after leaving the furnace and forced by a system of fans back into the furnace, where it is consumed and a saving of about 30 per cent in the way of fuel is the result.

Engineer Btt states that the system was introduced after considerable time and money had been expended, and was now in perfect working order.

It was learned today that several other factories in the city contemplate adding the improvement to their plants, as in cases where coal is used the saving is great, besides being much cleaner.

The draft, the engineer states, is much better since the application of the consumer and the fire is more even and requires less attention.

Business Is Slow In the Court of Mayor Davidson This Week.

A WOMAN HAD SOME TROUBLES

Business is not brisk in the mayor's court, and but one solitary drunk was gathered in last night.

The patrol was summoned to Cartwright's pottery, where Patrick Klunk was raising a row. He was drunk and succeeded in annoying everybody in the neighborhood. He told himself he was a little the best man in town, and of course he believed it and attempted also to convince a man named Robertson of the fact.

Pat Woods brought them both to jail and Klunk was locked up. There was nothing against Robertson and he was permitted to go.

Klunk was arraigned later and the mayor fined him $5 60.

A lady came to the mayor yesterday and from her appearance she had troubles of her own. This proved to be the case. She told the mayor that her husband was not treating her right and they quarreled constantly. She did not want him arrested, but wanted to know if there was not some other way. The mayor thought not, and gave the woman some good, sound, sensible advice and she went home.

David Watson last evening filed a complaint against James Brannan, charging him with attempting to provoke a breach of the peace. Brannan called Watson some nasty names and invited him off the car to fight. Watson feared he would get the worst of it if he did and made the charge.

Brannan will be looked after at once by the police.

Baydy Cain was arrested this morning by Chief Thompson on a charge of being implicated in the row on the river bank Saturday night in which Mike Sullivan was badly whipped. He was captured in a Second street saloon and was very drunk. He will be given a hearing in the morning when he gets sober.

Eva Wedgewood filed a charge before the mayor last evening against Joseph Heckathorne of using disparaging remarks to a lady. He was taken in by Chief Thompson, and having no witnesses to prove his innocence, was compelled to plead guilty.

The mayor fined him $2 and costs, and he gave an order on his employer for the amount.

Secured Judgment.

G. Y. Travis, as assignee of J. M. Baum, has recovered judgment in the court of Justice J. N. Rose against Margaret Kephart for $10 93 and against Edwin Murphy for $7 09.

Business Is Slow In the Court of Mayor Davidson This Week.

A WOMAN HAD SOME TROUBLES

Business is not brisk in the mayor's court, and but one solitary drunk was gathered in last night.

The patrol was summoned to Cartwright's pottery, where Patrick Klunk was raising a row. He was drunk and succeeded in annoying everybody in the neighborhood. He told himself he was a little the best man in town, and of course he believed it and attempted also to convince a man named Robertson of the fact.

Pat Woods brought them both to jail and Klunk was locked up. There was nothing against Robertson and he was permitted to go.

Klunk was arraigned later and the mayor fined him $5 60.

A lady came to the mayor yesterday and from her appearance she had troubles of her own. This proved to be the case. She told the mayor that her husband was not treating her right and they quarreled constantly. She did not want him arrested, but wanted to know if there was not some other way. The mayor thought not, and gave the woman some good, sound, sensible advice and she went home.

David Watson last evening filed a complaint against James Brannan, charging him with attempting to provoke a breach of the peace. Brannan Ferry, and Mrs. J. R. Miller, of Mingo called Watson some nasty names and Junction, are visiting Mrs. W. E. Lytle, invited him off the car to fight. Watson feared he would get the worst of it if he did and made the charge. Brannan will be looked after at once > Baydy Cain was arrested this morning by Chief Thompson on & charge of being implicated in the row on the river bank Saturday night in which Mike Sullivan was badly whipped. He was captured in a Second street saloon and was very drunk. He will be given a hearing in the morning when he gets sober.

Eva Wedgewood filed a charge before the mayor last evening against Joseph Heckathorne of using disparaging remarks to a lady. He was taken in by Chief Thompson, and having no witnesses to prove his innocence, was compelled to plead guilty.

The mayor fined him $2 and costs, vania street, returned this morning and he gave an order on his employer for the amount.

To Support an Orphan and You .Can Remit Quarterly If You Want to.

HELP THE ORPHAN FUND

The magnificent opportunity offered the Christian people by the acceptance of the legacy of the great famine in India-its orphans-has the added advantage of holding a plain duty. These children are left to us, are dependent upon the generosity of the Christian world, and are its most hopeful material for the advancement of its cause.

We believe that the Christian people of this land will neither shirk the responsibility nor neglect the opportunity. It must be met, not only with courage, but with gladness in our hearts.

We, who have been dealt with so generously, have been given so much of this world's goods, have had our loved ones spared to us, must give evidence of our gratitude. We must make a thank offering.

To those who have been called upon to part with loved ones this offers an opportunity for the upbuilding of a lasting, living memorial.

To the business man, so overwhelmed with pressing cares, and with the inner consciousness of a wish to do good and no time to devote to it, a way is opened. It takes no longer to sign a check giving to a little child the gift of life than it does to sign one bill; and this bill so justly due, in re- abroad. turn for all the business successes of the past year, is so very small-fifpleasure of having saved a little and industry. child's life! Send also your first contribution toward the support of your protege. As the annual cost of supporting an orphan is $15 you may remit either a quarter, half year's or whole year's contribution in advance, as you may decide. The fund will reply by sending you the name and address of the missionary at whose orphanage your protege is to be cared for, fed, sheltered and trained. You will also receive regular letters from your orphan ward, if the child is of an age to write. If you cannot assume care of an orphan send a contribution to the orphan fund, which, being joined to others, will care for one of these helpless little children.

CRADE • CROSSINGS.

An Interesting Decision Handed Down by the Attorney General of Ohio.

The people of East Liverpool will be interested in a decision given by Attorney General Sheets, in which he holds that where a railroad company either steam or electric, seeks to cross, at grade, another railroad, the railroad commissioner has authority to order a safety device to be put in at the cost of the company seeking to cross the tracks of other railroads. Such device is to be maintained jointly by the two companies. The ruling does not include the appointment of a watchman, this not being a safety device.

While the commissioner of railroads cannot arbitrarily and without reason order any kind of safety device or interlocker, he is given a wide discretion, and unless it is abused, there is no appealing from his decision. If the commissioner is of the opinion, based on the peculiarities of any crossing, that there ought to be a combination of the safety device and gates, the railroad companies must submit to his judgment.

GRADE- CROSSINGS.

An Interesting Decision Handed Down by the Attorney General of Ohio.

The people of East Liverpool will be interested in a decision given by Attorney General Sheets, in which he holds that where a railroad company, either steam or electric, seeks to cross, at grade, another railroad, the railroad commissioner has authority to order a safety device to be put in at the cost of the company seeking to cross the tracks of other railroads. Such device is to be maintained jointly by the two companies. The ruling does not include the appointment of a watchman, this not being a safety device.

While the commissioner of railroads cannot arbitrarily and without reason order any kind of safety device or interlocker, he is given a wide discretion, and unless it is abused, there is no appealing from his decision. If the commissioner is of the opinion, based on the peculiarities of any crossing, that there ought to be a combination of the safety device and gates, the railroad companies must submit to his judgment.

SHAMROCKS ARE THE CHAMPIONS

They Took the Deciding Game of the Series From the Eclipse Club.

ONLY FIVE INNINGS PLAYED

But That Was Long Enough to Permit the Shamrocks to Make Five Runs.

THE ECLIPSE DIDN'T SCORE

The ball game yesterday afternoon between the Shamrock and Eclipse clubs did not last quite five innings, but that was long enough for the Shamrocks to defeat the Eclipse boys 5 to 0 and win the championship of the city.

The game started promptly at 4 o'clock and Kennedy opened the game by striking out, but Davis dropped the third strike and Kennedy was out at first. Emmerling was hit by a pitched ball and Chadwick hit to middle for a single. Heckathorne struck out and Davis went out from Barker to Hecka-

In the Shamrocks half Smurthwaite went out from Stillwell to Gibson and Kennedy fell down on Davis' slow grounder. Just at this juncture it rained, and it was no easy rain either. It came down in torrents and in a short time the diamond looked like a miniature lake. When it had cleared up the players organized a broom and shovel brigade and cleaned it off and the game resumed at 5:20 o'clock. Davis never got any further than first base, as the next two men up went

The Eclipse in the second went out in one, two, three order and the Shamrocks managed to get a man to first, but he was retired by the finest double play ever made on the grounds. Lynch hit a short fly to middle, Chadwick by a desperate run caught the ball a few inches from the ground and without straightening up threw to first and nipped Barker, who had taken a lead.

The Shamrocks scored two in the fourth on a wild pitch and an error by Emmerling. They received three in the fifth on an error by Stillwell and one by Emmerling, who threw the ball to left field in attempting to put Webb out at third base. It began to rain again and the game ended with two hands out.

BUILDINGS WRECKED.

Terrific Windstorm Struck Sheboygan, Wis.

200 SMALL HOUSES BLOWN DOWN.

Eight Large Buildings Wrecked - The Loss About $300,000 - People Thrown Down and a Number Bruised, but No One Killed.

Sheboygan, Wis., Aug. 21.-A terrific windstorm struck this city, comng suddenly from the north. Eight large buildings were completely wrecked and 200 small houses were blown down, causing a loss of about $300,000.

At noon it was as dark as night and intensely hot. A few moments before 1 o'clock the storm broke, increasing in force until it became a tornado. People were thrown down and fences and signs hurled hundreds of feet. The storm, which raged for only about ten minutes, was two miles wide and wrecked the buildings.

The street car barns were wrecked and cars were smashed to pieces. The electric wires were all blown down.

The roof of the warehouse of the Crocker Chair company was blown off and thrown against the factory, wrecking the building.

The tent over a horse and some ponies was torn from the ground and blown away, leaving the animals to run panicstricken through the city

The roof of the Schrier brewery was lifted from the building and carried over 150 yards.

The American Folding Bed company's plant was demolished and the sheds in the A. Zimball & Sons' brickyards were blown down.

The steeple of the Lutheran church was blown down into two residences, smashing the roofs. The Fourth ward schoolhouse was completely wrecked. The plant of the Optenberg & Sonne-man company was partially wrecked. The following suffered heavy losses: Henry Tillman, Herman Dehne, Otto Zoerns, Thomas Atkins, Gustave Roehcorn, William Gold.

The wind wrecked building after building with the greatest rapidity, and there was little warning of the approach of the storm. The people in every case, however, were out of their houses before the storm struck, and those who were hit by flying debris were only slightly injured. In the factories the employes were in many cases bruised and cut from wreckage.

They cure sick kidneys.

Here is East Liverpool proof that Mr. H. Thompson, of 306 Fourth street, presser at the D. E. McNicol pottery and resident of East Liverpool for the past 45 years, says: "During my campaign experiences between the years of '61 and '64 I contracted a weakness of the kidneys, and at intervals I had an aching pain across the small of my back and was subject to attacks of muscular rheumatism, especially in damp weather. I was frequently so bad that I could scarcely get up when down, and in fact could hardly get around at all. I tried many remedies endeavoring to get rid of my trouble, but found nothing until I got Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy. They filled the bill exactly, giving me almost immediate relief, and warded off the last windstorm struck this city, comng suddenly from the north. Eight large buildings were completely wrecked and 200 small houses were blown down, causing a loss of about $300,000.

At noon it was as dark as night and intensely hot. A few moments before 1 o'clock the storm broke, increasing in force until it became a tornado. People were thrown down and fences and signs hurled hundreds of feet. The storm, which raged for only about ten minutes, was two miles wide and wrecked the buildings.

The street car barns were wrecked and cars were smashed to pieces. The electric wires were all blown down.

The roof of the warehouse of the Crocker Chair company was blown off and thrown against the factory, wrecking the building.

The tent over a horse and some ponies was torn from the ground and blown away, leaving the animals to run panicstricken through the city The roof of the Schrier brewery was lifted from the building and carried over 150 yards. The American Folding Bed company's plant was demolished and the sheds in the A. Zimball & Sons' brick-The steeple of the Lutheran church was blown down into two residences, smashing the roofs. The Fourth war schoolhouse was completely wrecked. The plant of the Optenberg & Sonne-man company was partially wrecked. The following suffered heavy losses: Henry Tillman, Herman Dehne, Otto Zoerns, Thomas Atkins, Gustave Roehcorn, William Gold.

The wind wrecked building after building with the greatest rapidity, and there was little warning of the approach of the storm. The people in every case, however, were out of their houses before the storm struck, and those who were hit by flying debris were only slightly injured. In the factories the employes were in many cases bruised and cut from wreckage.

SHAMROCKS ARE THE CHAMPIONS

They Took the Deciding Game of the Series From the Eclipse Club.

FIVE INNINGS PLAYED

But That Was Long Enough to Permit the Shamrocks to Make Five Runs.

ECLIPSE DIDN'T THE

The ball game yesterday afternoon between the Shamrock and Eclipse clubs did not last quite five innings, but that was long enough for the Shamrocks to defeat the Eclipse boys 5 to 0 and win the championship of the city.

The game started promptly at o'clock and Kennedy opened the game by striking out, but Davis dropped the third strike and Kennedy was out at first. Emmerling was hit by a pitched ball and Chadwick hit to middle for a single. Heckathorne struck out and Davis went out from Barker to Hecka-

In the Shamrocks half Smurthwaite went out from Stillwell to Gibson and Kennedy fell down on Davis' slow grounder. Just at this juncture it rained, and it was no easy rain either. It came down in torrents and in a short time the diamond looked like a miniature lake. When it had cleared up the players organized a broom and shovel brigade and cleaned it off and the game resumed at 5:20 o'clock. Davis never got any further than first base, as the next two men up went

The Eclipse in the second went out in one, two, three order and the Shamrocks managed to get a man to first, but he was retired by the finest double play ever made on the grounds. Lynch hit a short fly to middle, Chadwick by a desperate run caught the ball a few inches from the ground and without straightening up threw to first and nipped Barker, who had taken a lead.

The Shamrocks scored two in the fourth on a wild pitch and an error by Emmerling. They received three in the fifth on an error by Stillwell and one by Emmerling, who threw the ball to left field in attempting to put Webb out at third base. It began to rain again and the game ended with two hands out.

CHAFFEE AND HIS BOYS.

General Chaffee and his boys have been doing very gallant work in China. It is now in line for Bryan and his followers to howl against the spirit of imperialism which characterizes our gallant officers and men.

----THE PHILIPPINES.

War was inevitable with Spain. As the sequence of that war and the dethe Philippines came into our possion. With peace in the Philippines lem this week.

and trade in full swing, the land will prove a grand acquisition to the United States. Billie Jennings Bryan and his followers have done all in their power to encourage the insurgents, and thus render peace almost an impossibility. The voters of the nation will teach these encouragers of treason a much needed lesson the coming fall. The great pity is that Billie and his friend Atkinson, in company with a few more leaders of like ilk. are not banished to Luzon and placed within the insurgent lines, in company with Aguinaldo and his followers, so that the bullets of an incensed soldiery might go hunting after their cowardly carcasses. The only trouble And Ordered to Report at the would be that these treason encouragers would keep so far in the rear that the longest range gun invented could not send a bullet far enough to reach them.,

TREACHERY.

And now Conger informs us that Chinese treachery held full sway at Peking and that the imperial troops attempted the destruction of the legations, hiding behind the excuse that the Boxers were attempting the murderous work. Conger says that the allied forces reached Peking in the nick of time. China has danced to her heart's content, and now she will be compelled to pay the fiddler. Wonder if Billie Jennings Bryan will declare Wm. McKinley, president of the United States, an autocrat, despot and imperialist, in consequence of the president hurrying the rescuing force forward to Peking? Billie and his gang will be sick of the words"antiimperialist" before the coming campaign is over. The masses of our American people hate a coward above all things else.

CICARETTE SMOKERS

Must Either Quit Using the Things or Lose Their Jobs on Rock Island Railroad.

Why Called Hangers.

Wall paper does not hang, and yet the person whose business it is to paste it up is called a paper hanger. The reason is simple. Long before the introduction of wall papers, Arras, a town of France, was famous for its tapestries, called "arras." These were used as wall coverings and the men who were employed to put them up were called hangers.

While the general tone throughout the greater part of the day was reactionary, there were periods of steadiness when the shorts reduced their lines. Some comment was aroused by the sudden marking up of General Electric to 140%. Its closing price n Saturday was 136. Reports of a combination with a rival concern and excellent earnings were circulated, of which there was no confirmation. Fluctuations in the steel group were comparatively narrow, but early losses were generally recovered in the late afternoon on reports of improved trade conditions. A matter f interest in cnnection with the international monetary situation was the decline in call money in London to 21/2 per cent. This circumstance was attributed to receipts of gold by the Bank of England amounting to $4..670,000. This amount included the $3,250,000 gold exported from here Saturday week. The sub-treasury statement for Monshowed that it was a debtor at clearing house to the unusual amount of $3,162,900. Payments by the government on account of the redemotion of the old 2 per cent bonds for Saturday and Monday amounted to $3. 32.019. and trade in full swing, the land will prove a grand acquisition to the United States. Billie Jennings Bryan and his followers have done all in their power to encourage the insurgents, and thus render peace almost an impossibility. The voters of the nation will teach these encouragers of treason a much needed lesson the coming fall. The great pity is that Billie and his friend Atkinson, in company with a few more leaders of like ilk, are not banished to Luzon and placed within the insurgent lines, in company with Aguinaldo and his followers, so that the bullets of an incensed soldiery might go hunting after their cowardly carcasses. The only trouble And Ordered to Report at the would be that these treason encouragers would keep so far in the rear that the longest range gun invented could not send a bullet far enough to reach them.,

TREACHERY.

And now Conger informs us that Chinese treachery held full sway at Peking and that the imperial troops attempted the destruction of the legations, hiding behind the excuse that the Boxers were attempting the murderous work. Conger says that the allied forces reached Peking in the nick of time. China has danced to her heart's content, and now she will be compelled to pay the fiddler. Wonder if Billie Jennings Bryan will declare Wm. McKinley, president of the United States, an autocrat, despot and imperialist, in consequence of the president hurrying the rescuing force forward to Peking? Billie and his gang will be sick of the words"antiimperialist" before the coming campaign is over. The masses of our American people hate a coward above all things else.

General Weakness in the Flower Stocks Owing to the Death of a Member of the Firm.

New York, Aug. 21.-There was no

radical change Monday in the character of recent stock market operations. General news bearing on the situation was scant, but what there was was further ammunition for the bears London, which has latterly been a buy. er, turned seller for a small amount, and western offerings were effective in special stocks. General weakness occurred in stocks with which the firm of Flower & Co. is identified, following the announcement of the death of a member of the firm. These include half a dozen of the most active issues, and losses ranged 1 to 2 points, with Brooklyn Transit and People's Gas Elsewhere selling was in leading. mderate volume, but some rather pronounced declines occurred in Sugar, Tobacco, Consolidated Gas and Metropolitan Street railway. Pailroad stocks were much better stained htan the specialties, declines extending to a point only in St. Paul and Rock Island. While the general tone throughout the greater part of the day was reactionary, there were periods of steadiness when the shorts reduced their lines. Some comment was aroused by the sudden marking up of General Electric to 140%. Its closing price n Saturday was 136. Reports of a combination with a rival concern and excellent earnings were circulated, of which there was no confirmation. Fluctuations in the steel group were comparatively narrow, but early losses were generally recovered in the late afternoon on reports of improved trade conditions. A matter f interest in ennection with the international monetary situation was the decline in call money in London to 21/2 per cent. This circumstance was attributed to receipts of gold by the Bank of England amounting to $4.670,000. This amount included the $3,250,000 gold exported from here Saturday week. The sub-treasury statement for Monday showed that it was a debtor at clearing house to the unusual amount of $3,162,900. Payments by the government on account of the redemotion of the old 2 per cent bonds for Saturday and Monday amounted to $3. 32.019. In the last half hour of tralling People's Gas and Brooklyn Transit were bid up over a point from the lowest, which exerted a stimulating effect on the entire list. The closing was steady, with a rally in prog-I nds showed irregularity, but charges were small. Total sales, par value, $625,000. U. S. new 4s advanced 1/4 in the bid price.

Property Owners Had Attorneys Present to Object to the Size of Their Assessments.

A COMMITTEE WAS APPOINTED

A special meeting of council was held yesterday afternoon to dispose of several questions which were referred to it at the last meeting.

All members were present except Arnold, Smith and Cripps.

The most important matter demanding attention was the question of assessments for street and sewer on fire station were broken to pieces. Bradshaw avenue.

Attorneys R. G. Thompson and Hollis Grosshans were present to represent the property owners on that thoroughfare.

At the time the street was paved and sewered the assessment was made on the abutting property per foot front, combining the two assessments in one. This the property owners object to, claiming it is too high.

A good deal of discussion took place on this matter as to the best method of settling the question to the satisfaction of the property owners.

It was finally decided to appoint a committee to consist of Messrs. Peach, Marshall and McHenry, who, with the engineer and solicitor will meet the kickers and their attorneys at the office of H. E. Grosshans at 7:30 tonight, at which time an endeavor will be made to adjust the difficulty.

Councilman Peach brought up a question that has been agitated for some time by all parties having any thing to do with the patrol depart

It was so decided, and the work will be done at once.

A number of other assessment matters were brought up, notably that of the extension of East Market street, but no definite action could be taken.

The session lasted the entire afternoon until almost 6 o'clock.

EAST END. FREAKS OF LICHTNING.

East End People Were Severely Shocked Yesterday Afternoon During the Storm.

The lightning played some queer pranks in East End yesterday. It struck a pole on the corner of Mulberry and River streets and several persons in the neighborhood suffered a shock. Mrs. Douglass was prostrated for some time, Mrs. English was so badly shocked that it was necessary to call a physician; little Margaret Snowden, who was standing a few steps from the door, was knocked down, and others were very badly frightened.

A pole with a battery on it standing just in front of Dr. Marshall's residence was struck, and some boys who had their hands on the patrol box were knocked in all directions. A man who was leaning against another pole has a very lame arm as a result of spent All Afternoon Discussing Matters Laid Over at the Last Meeting.

AVENUE BRADSHAW

Property Owners Had Attorneys Present to Object to the Size of Their Assessments.

A COMMITTEE WAS APPOINTED

A special meeting of council was held yesterday afternoon to dispose of several questions which were referred to it at the last meeting.

All members were present except Arnold, Smith and Cripps.

The most important matter demanding attention was the question of assessments for street and sewer on Bradshaw avenue.

Attorneys R. G. Thompson and Hollis Grosshans were present to represent the property owners on that thoroughfare.

At the time the street was paved and sewered the assessment was made on the abutting property per foot front, combining the two assessments in one. This the property owners object to, claiming it is too high.

A good deal of discussion took place on this matter as to the best method of settling the question to the satisfaction of the property owners.

It was finally decided to appoint a committee to consist of Messrs. Peach, Marshall and McHenry, who, with the engineer and solicitor will meet the kickers and their attorneys at the office of H. E. Grosshans at 7:30 tonight, at which time an endeavor will be made to adjust the difficulty.

Councilman Peach brought up question that has been agitated for some time by all parties having anything to do with the patrol depart-

The mayor and others have thought for some time that the patrol wagon should be covered, as about the onehalf or more of the calls received are for ambulance purposes, and this being the case the patrol should by all Elliott and F. B. Chambers. means be covered.

It was so decided, and the work will be done at once.

A number of other assessment matters were brought up, notably that of the extension of East Market street, but no definite action could be taken.

The session lasted the entire afternoon until almost 6 o'clock.

They Should Remember.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

EAST END. FREAKS OF LICHTNING.

East End People Were Severely Shocked Yesterday Afternoon During the Storm.

The lightning played some queer pranks in East End yesterday. It struck a pole on the corner of Mulberry and River streets and several persons in the neighborhood suffered a shock. Mrs. Douglass was prostrated for some time, Mrs. English was so badly shocked that it was necessary to call a physician; little Margaret Snowden, who was standing a few steps from the door, was knocked down, and others were very badly frightened.

A pole with a battery on it standing just in front of Dr. Marshall's residence was struck, and some boys who had their hands on the patrol box were knocked in all directions. A man who was leaning against another pole has a very lame arm as a result of the holt

Considerable damage was done in the shape of burning out lights and telephones, and the insulators at the is in Chester looking for a business fire station were broken to pieces.

FRANCE RUN

When Officer Hamilton Arrived at Columbian Park He Took His Departure.

This morning Officer Hamilton was called to Columbian park, but before he arrived Harry France departed.

The officer gave chase, but France managed to elude him and escape.

The parties who were at the park refused to tell what France had been doing and why they sent the telephone message.

France is the man who escaped from the city jail a few weeks ago.

Should Build a Fence.

The old East End cemetery is used now-a-days for a pasture ground and a resting place for "Weary Willies" and others of their stamp. People who respect the ashes of the departed who are buried there suggest that such misuse be prevented by a fence being built around the lot.

ALLIES NEEDED MEN

Urgent Requests Came From ing Tuesday Pekin for More Troops.

Goodnow Sent Message That Governor of Shantung Made a Statemeni That Empress Left the Capital on 13th for Sinan Fu-Ching and Tuan in Peking.

London, Aug. 21.--News received here indicated that the allies were in need of reinforcements.

The commander of the Italian telegraphs from Taku, according Daily Mail, that very urgent requests were coming from Peking on Saturday for the immediate dispatch of further troops, and that, ers marines were sent off post haste.

Washington, Aug. 21.-The state department made public the following: "Che Foo, Aug. 20. "Secretary of State, Washington:

"Twentieth-Ragsdale reports Chinese troops surrounded in palace grounds Fowler." Ragsdale is consul of the United States at Tien Tsin.

The state department issued the following statement: The acting secretary of state made public the receipt of a telegram today (Aug. 20) from Consul General Goodnow, dated the 20th inst., reporting a statement of the governor of Shantung that the empress left Peking on the 13th for Si-nan Fu, in the province of Shensi, and Vicceroy Kang Yi are still in Peking. Sinan Fu" appears to be another phonetic version of the name of the capital of Shensi-where there is an imperial palace. It is otherwise spelled Hsi An, Si An and Si Ngan, the suffix "Fu" denoting the city, which is the seat of administration.

Washington, Aug. 21,-The Japanese legation received several important dispatches. One received from Tokio, dated August 19, said:

"After entry into Peking was effected by the allied troops the Japanese troops on August 15 betook themselves to and remained in the imperial palace. A body of Japanese troops was told to guard the palace, and here they met with obstinate resistance by the Chinese troops. Fighting is sill going The headquarters of the Japanese army is in the legation and the division is mainly quartered in the villages outside of n Ting Men."

Another telegi dated the 19th. gave the report of the Japanese consul general at Shanghai, saying Sheng credits the report that the empress dowager and probably the emperor also had left Peking, as the privy council crossed the Lukon bridge on the 12th, bearing the banner of the imperial cortege. Also that Prince Ching is still in Peking, although Prince Tuan has followed the empress dowager.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The state department received a dispatch from Consul Fowler, dated Che Foo, August It relates to the massacre of missionaries and others at Pao Ting Fu, which has been referred to a number of times in the press dispatches, and has generally been conceded to have occurred on June 30. The first part of the dispatch is so badly mangled in transmission that it is impossible to make much of it. The text is as follows:

"Che Foo, Received Aug. 15 .. *Secretary of State, Washington: "Evening, 13th-Reported all Presbyterian missionaries Pao Ting Fu killed June 30; premises burned same (night?); Catholic mission. stopped work. July 1st attacked American (board?) (Pitkin?) shot dead trying to keep gang out. Misses Morrell, Gould taken Boxer headquarters, killed. (Bagnall?) killed near (Temple?) Cooper and Belgians' fate uncertain. Officials had sent all home from men. All natives connected toreigners suffered like fate. Authority: Special messenger sent by Tien Tsin mission-Fowler."

APPEAL OF CHINA

MAY BE REJECTED.

TA Asked That Conger or Some Other Official Might Be Appointed to Conduct Negotiations.

Washington, Aug. 21.-The American reply to Chinas latest appeal for a cessation of hostilities, received today from Li Hung Chang, had not yet been made known when this article was written, and the matter may receive some consideration at the cabinet meet-

The Chinese government, through Li, made application to the United States for the appiontment of Minister Conger or some other American official, with CHINESE SURROUNDED AT PALACE authority to open negotiations for the establishment of peace and for fixing definite terms for the settlement of the present trouble. The application came to the Chinese minester, and was taken by him to the state depart-

There is reason to believe that the overtures will in effect be rejected on the ground that the conditions laid down in the American note of August 12 have not been complied with, and until complied with the government's course must proceed without reference to China's desire for a halt in the prosecond-class cruiser Fieramosca ceedings. The dispatch of August 12 said specifically that the United States was ready to enter into an agreement to the Rome correspondent of The between the powers and the Chinese government for a cessation of histilities on condition that the relief forces should be permitted 'to enter Peking unmolested" and escort the legationtherefrom under such circumstances therefrom under such cirin answer to these, 400 Italian cumstances as the commanding general might lay down. But up to the present time there is no evidence that the allied forces are unmolested at Peking or have received the sanction of the imperial government to convey the legationers to Tien Tsin without further trouble, and under the conditions laid down by the commanding general On the contrary, all of the dispatches indicate that the allies are meeting stubborn resistance, and there is an entire lack of compliance with the conditions laid down by the United States in its dispatch of August 12, as stated above When the foregoing was written, the government had given no authoritative statement of its purpose in reply to China's apthat Princes Ching and Tuan and plication, and there is still a slight chance that complete compliance with STEWART WILL VOTE FOR the demands of August 12 be announced in the Peking dispatches before the final determination on the reply is made. The United States government also might wish to first consult with other powers.

A DINNER GIVEN IN HIS HONOR.

Cabinet Members and Others Present, Later Held a Conference—The Governor Expected to Return to New York Today.

Washington, Aug. 21. - Governor Theodore Roosevelt, of New York, has been in Washington, the guest of President McKinley at the white house. The governor arrived here shortly after 6 o'clock last eyening, and was met at the station by Secretary Cortelyou, who escorted him to the executive masnion. In anticipation of Governor Roosevelt's visit the president and Mrs. McKinley had invited the cabinet members and others to tion of that platform at Kansas City meet the governor at dinner at the white house, the party including Postmaster General Emory Smith, Secretary and Mrs. Gage, Secretary Wilson and Secetary Hitchcock and Adjuant General Corbin. Soon after the dinner the invited guests withdrew.

Various political and other matteds were discussed by the presidential and vice presidential candidates, the conference lasting until about midnight. No statement other than that this was made as to the conference and Governor Roosevelt asked newspaper men to excuse him last night, promising to see them in the morning. During the evening Comptroller wawes called on some business with the president. Later in hte evening the comptroller left for New York. The visit of Governor Roosevelt was entirely unexpected, and his presence in the city was not generally known. He expects to remain today, when he will return to New York, but at what hour he has not yet determined.

PRESIDENT M'KINLEY

He Declared That Democrats Urged War With Spain and Denouce Its Fruit-Other Points.

New York, Aug. 21.-Senator Will iam M. Stewart, of Nevada, called at Republican headquarters and said he had decided to vote for President Me-Kinley. He made a statement in part as follows:

"The United States went to war with Spain urged on by the Democratic party. The popularity of the war was such that Mr. Bryan joined the army. The war was successful, a treaty of peace was entered into whereby the United States ageed to pay $20,000,000 and accept the sovereignty and public property of Spain in the Philippine the ratification of the treaty. Mr. Bryan came to Washington and persuaded his Democratic friends to vote for the treaty, and it was through his influence that the treaty was finally ratified. It then became the duty of the United States to maintain law and order and protect the lives and property of all residents in the islands, whether native or foreign-born. The United States at the time of the ratification of the treaty held military possession of Manila, and immediately after such ratification assumed the sovereignty of the islands. The people of the United States, and particularly of the Pacific coast, became entitled to the vast commerce of the Pacific ocean, of which the Philippines furnished the key.

"One Aguinaldo raised a rebellion in Luzon against Spain before the commencement of the Spanish war with the United States. This adventurer had sold out or settled his rebellion with Spain for $400,000 before Dewey set sail for Manila, and as a part of the bargain with Spain, Aguinaldo agreed to leave the islands and never return.

"Dewey took the wily agitator back to the islands, supposing, as a matter of course, that Aguinaldo would naturally be an enemy of Spain and a friend of the United States. In this Admiral Dewey was mistaken. Aguinaldo, as soon as he landed on his native soil, organized a rebellion against the United States, which would have been of little consequence if he had not been able to obtain comfort and aid in this country. An organization was formed in the United States called the Anti-Imperialistic league, which has for the last two years co-operated with Aguinaldo's Tagal junta, with headquarters at Hongkong to supply literature and means of war for Aguinaldo. President McKinley had no authority to buy out Aguinaldo's rebellion New Castle at Mansfield, Columbus at Wheelagainst the United States, but was bound by the treaty (which was the Wayne.

supreme law of the land) to maintain law and order and protect life and property in the islands. It required a large army and the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars to put down Aguinaldo's rebellion. The assistance and encouragement he received from the Anti-Imperialistic league and the enemies of the United States, both at home and abroad, made his barbarous and irregular war bloody and expensive. Congress. however, made all necessary appropriations. providing the executive men and money to maintain the authority of the United States in the Philippines. The President and His Running Mate The so-called Anti-Imperialists declar ed that the policy pursued by the government to put down the rebellion and maintain law and order in all teritories of the United States without regard to the time when such territories were acquired was imperialism, and that any use of the army to main tain law and order-however neces sary-was militarism, and that giving aid and comfort to rebels in arms against the United States was maintaining the principles of the Declaration of Independence.

"Mr. Bryan's unparalleled campaign for the principles of the Chicago platform and his insistence upon the adopinduced the people to suppose the campaign of 1900 would be conducted on the issues of 1896. In this they were mistaken."

Senator Stewart then quoted Mr. Bryan's declaration of his intention If elected, to call an extraordinary session of congress to give the Philippines freedom upon the same terms as Cuba. He also denounces the recent convention of Anti-Imperialists at Indianapolis. He also denounces Mr. Bryan for promising to attempt to "extend the Monroe doctrine to the Elm street. Orient."

Urgent Requests Came From ing Tuesday. Pekin for More Troops.

CHINESE SURROUNDED AT PALACE

Shantung Made a Statemeni That Empress Left the Capital on 13th for Sinan Fu-Ching and Tuan in Peking.

London, Aug. 21.-- News received here indicated that the allies were in need of reinforcements.

The commander of the Italian second-class cruiser Fieramosca telegraphs from Taku, according to the Rome correspondent of The Daily Mail, that very urgent requests were coming from Peking on Saturday for the immediate dispatch of further troops, and that, marines were sent off post haste.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The state department made public the following:

"Che Foo, Aug. 20.
"Secretary of State, Washington:
"Twentieth-Ragsdale reports Chinese troops surrounded in palace grounds Fowler." Ragsdale is consul of the United States at Tien Tsin.

The state department issued the following statement: The acting secretary of state made public the receipt of a telegram today (Aug. 20) from Consul General Goodnow, dated the 20th inst., reporting a statement of the governor of Shantung that the empress left Peking on the 13th for Sinan Fu, in the province of Shensi, and that Princes Ching and Tuan and Vicceroy Kang Yi are still in Peking.
"Sinan Fu" appears to be another phonetic version of the period of the peri phonetic version of the name of the capital of Shensi-where there is an imperial palace. It is otherwise spelled Hsi An, Si An and Si Ngan, the suffix "Fu" denoting the city, which is the seat of administration. Washington, Aug. 21,-The Japanese legation received several important dispatches. One received from Tokio, dated August 19, said:

"After entry into Peking was effected by the allied troops the Japanese troops on August 15 betook themselves to and remained in the imperial palace. A body of Japanese troops was told to guard the palace, and here they met with obstinate resistance by the Chinese troops. Fighting is sill going on. The headquarters of the Japanese army is in the legation and the division is mainly quartered in the villages outside of n Ting Men."

Another telegram, dated the 19th, gave the report of the Japanese consu neral at Shanghai, saying Sheng credits the report that the empress dowager and probably the emperor also had left Peking, as the privy council crossed the Lukon bridge on the 12th, bearing the banner of the imperial cortege. Also that Prince Ching is still in Peking, although Prince Tuan has followed the empress dowager.

Washington, Aug. 21.-The state department received a dispatch from Consul Fowler, dated Che Foo, August 15. It relates to the massacre of missionaries and others at Pao Ting Fu, which has been referred to a number of times in the press dispatches, and has generally been conceded to have occurred on June 30. The first part of the dispatch is so badly mangled in transmission that it is impossible to make much of it. The text is as follows:

"Che Foo, Received Aug. 15... "Secretary of State, Washington: Evening, 13th-Reported all Presbyterian missionaries Pao Ting Fu killed June 30; premises burned same (night?); Catholic mission. Rain opped work. July 1st attacked Amerlean (board?) (Pitkin?) shot dead trying to keep gang out. Misses Morrell, Gould taken Boxer headquarters, killed. (Bagnall?) killed near (Temple?) Cooper and Belgians' fate uncertain. Officials had sent all home from men. All natives connected toreigners suffered like fate. Authority: Special messenger sent by Tien Tsin mission-Fowler."

CHINESE SURROUNDED AT PALACE

Goodnow Sent Message That Governor of Shantung Made a Statemeni That Empress Left the Capital on 13th for Sinan Fu-Ching and Tuan in Peking.

London, Aug. 21 .- News receiv- the ground that the conditions laid ed here indicated that the allies were in need of reinforcements.

The commander of the Italian telegraphs from Taku, according Daily Mail, that very urgent reon Saturday for the immediate dispatch of further troops, and that, ers marines were sent off post haste.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The state department made public the following: "Che Foo, Aug. 20.

"Secretary of State, Washington:
"Twentieth-Ragsdale reports Chinese troops surrounded in palace grounds Fowler." Ragsdale is consul of the United States at Tien Tsin.

The state department issued the following statement: The acting sec-retary of state made public the receipt of a telegram today (Aug. 20) from Consul General Goodnow, dated the 20th inst., reporting a statement of the governor of Shantung that the empress left Peking on the 13th for Sinan Fu, in the province of Shensi, and that Princes Ching and Tuan and Vicceroy Kang Yi are still in Peking.

"Sinan Fu" appears to be another phonetic version of the name of the capital of Shensi-where there is an imperial palace. It is otherwise spelled Hsi An, Si An and Si Ngan, the suffix "Fu" denoting the city, which is the seat of administration. Washington, Aug. 21,—The Japanese legation received several important dispatches. One received from Tokio, dated August 19, said:

"After entry into Peking was effected by the allied troops the Japanese troops on August 15 betook themselves to and remained in the imperial palace. A body of Japanese troops was told to guard the palace, and here they met with obstinate resistance by the Chinese troops. Fighting is sill going on. The headquarters of the Japanese army is in the legation and the division is mainly quartered in the villages outside of n Ting Men."

Another telegram, dated the 19th, gave the report of the Japanese consul eral at Shanghai, saving Sheng credits the report that the empress dowager and probably the emperor also had left Peking, as the privy council crossed the Lukon bridge on the 12th, bearing the banner of the imperial cortege. Also that Prince Ching is still in Peking, although Prince Tuan has followed the empress dowager.

Washington, Aug. 21.-The state department received a dispatch from Consul Fowler, dated Che Foo, August 15. It relates to the massacre of missionaries and others at Pao Ting Fu, which has been referred to a number of times in the press dispatches. and has generally been conceded to have occurred on June 30. The first part of the dispatch is so badly mangled in transmission that it is impossible to make much of it. The text is as follows:

"Che Foo, Received Aug. 15..

"Secretary of State, Washington: Evening, 13th-Reported all Presbyterian missionaries Pao Ting Fu killed June 30; premises burned same (night?); Catholic mission. stopped work. July 1st attacked American (board?) (Pitkin?) shot dead trying to keep gang out. Misses Morrell, Gould taken Boxer headquarters. killed. (Bagnall?) killed near (Temple?) But up to the present time there is no evidence that the allied forces are unmolested at Peking or have received the sanction of the imperial government to convey the legationers to Tien Tsin without further trouble, and under the conditions laid down by the commanding general On the contrary, all of the dispatches indicate that the allies are meeting stubborn resistance, and there is an entire lack of compliance with the conditions laid down by the United States in its dispatch of August 12, as stated above When the foregoing was written, the government had given no authoritative statement of its purpose in reply to China's application, and there is still a slight chance that complete compliance with the demands of August 12 be announced in the Peking dispatches before the final determination on the reply is made. The United States government also might wish to first consult with other powers.

STEWART WILL VOTE FOR PRESIDENT M'KINLEY.

He Declared That Democrats Urged War With Spain and Denouce Its Fruit-Other Points.

New York, Aug. 21.-Senator Will iam M. Stewart, of Nevada, called at Republican headquarters and said he had decided to vote for President Mc-Kinley. He made a statement in part as follows:

"The United States went to war with Spain urged on by the Democratic party. The popularity of the war was such that Mr. Bryan joined the army. The war was successful, a treaty of peace was entered into whereby the United States ageed to pay $20,000,000 suaded his Democratic friends to vote for the treaty, and it was through his influence that the treaty was finally ratified. It then became the duty of the United States to maintain law and order and protect the lives and property of all residents in the islands, whether native or foreign-born. The United States at the time of the ratification of the treaty held military possession of Manila, and immediately after such ratification assumed the sovereignty of the islands. The people of the United States, and particularly of the Pacific coast, became entitled to the vast commerce of the Pacific ocean, of which the Philippines furnished the key.

"One Aguinaldo raised a rebellion in Luzon against Spain before the commencement of the Spanish war with the United States. This adventurer had sold out or settled his rebellion with Spain for $400,000 before Dewey set sail for Manila, and as a part of the bargain with Spain, Aguinaldo agreed to leave the islands and never return. "Dewey took the wily agitator back to the islands, supposing, as a matter of course, that Aguinaldo would naturally be an enemy of Spain and a friend of the United States. In this Admiral Dewey was mistaken. Aguinaldo, as soon as he landed on his native soil, organized a rebellion against the United States, which would have been of little consequence if he had not been able to obtain comfort and aid in this country. An organization was formed in the United States called the Anti-Imperialistic league, which has for the last two years co-operated with Aguinaldo's Tagal junta, with headquarters at Hongkong to supply literature and means of war for Aguinaldo. "Mr. Bryan's unparalleled campaign form and his insistence upon the adopto tion of that platform at Kansas City induced the people to suppose the campaign of 1900 would be conducted on the issues of 1896. In this they were mistaken

Senator Stewart then quoted Mr. Bryan's declaration of his intention If elected, to call an extraordinary session of congress to give the Philippines freedom upon the same terms as Cuba. He also denounces the recent convention of Anti-Imperialists at Indianapolis. He also denounces Mr. Bryan for promising to attempt to extend the Monroe doctrine to the Elm street. Orient."

SAW THROUGH DEWET'S RUSE

Baden-Powell Reported Following Him. Two Boer Defeats.

London, Aug. 21 .. - A dispatch from Pretoria eports that General DeWet appeared north of Comman Nek, 20 miles from here. He sent a flag of truce to General Baden-Powell demanding his surrender. This, however, was only a plan to discover the strength of the British force.

General Baden-Powell, seeing the ruse, and hoping to detain DeWet. asked what terms would be given if he surrendered. The messenger was equally sharp, and, having learned the strength of the garrison, returned to General DeWet, who at once resumed his march northward without the formality of sending his terms to the British. General Baden-Powell is following him.

General Roberts reported that General Carrington met and defeated a strong Boer force at Buffelshock, Augus 16.

Swartz, one of the commanders, was severely wounded. The British losses were Captain Hanvey and two men killed and nine wounded.

His advance troops under General Mahon engaged the enemy August 19 at Roode Kopjes, n the west bank of the Crocodile river. He had few casualties. Seven Boers and two wagons were captured.

ISAAC R. SHERWOOD.

General Isaac R. Sherwood was prominent as a lawyer, a soldier, a newspaper editor and a political leader during the last half of the century. He was for many years a resident of Williams county. He was born Aug. 15, 1835, and attended the Hudson River institute, Clarnack, New York. He graduated from Antioch college, Ohio, and later from the Western Law school at Cleveland, and was admitted to the bar and became a leading attorney. In 1857 he established the Williams County Gazette, a Republican paper, and in 1859 was elected probate judge of Williams county At the beginning of the civil war, April 18, 1861, he enlisted as a private soldier in the Fourteenth Ohio volunteer infantry, resigning both the office of mayor of Bryan and the lucrative office of probate judge of Williams county for the pay of a private soldier. At the close of his first enlistment he was made a lieutenant in the One Hundred and Eleventh Ohio Volunteer infantry, and was promoted through all the grades to colonel of the regiment, and was brevetted a brigadier general for gallant conduct at the battle of Franklin, Tennessee. He participated in the first actual battle of the war at Phillipi and at the last at Raleigh.

He participated in more than thirty actions during his military career, and was repeatedly complimented for his soldierly conduct. He was appointed commissioner for the Freedman's Bureau of Florida in February, 1865, but resigned after filling the position for a few weeks.

He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Sixth district, Williams, Fulton, Henry, Wood, Lucas and Ottawa counties, and served but a single term. He had previously been elected secretary of state, in 1868, as a Republican, over Thomas Hubbard, Democrat, by a vote of 267,066 to 249,-682, and was re-elected in 1870 over William Heisley, Democrat, by a vote of 221,708 to 205,018.

He was an editor of prominence, and was editorially connected with a number of leading newspapers, among them the Toledo Commercial, the Toledo Journal, the Cleveland Leader and the Canton Democrat. In 1880 he severed his connection with the Republican and affiliated with the Democratic party. In the closing months of the century he is one of the recognized and prominent leaders of the Democratic party of the state.

LAWRENCE T. NEAL.

Lawrence T. Neal of Chillicothe, and at this time of Columbus, has long been among the foremost lawyers and Democratic leaders of the state, and was five times a delegate to the national Democratic conventions. He was born at Parkersburg, now West Virginia, Sept. 22, 1844, and was educated at a private academy in that city.

When 20 years of age he migrated to Chillicothe, Ross county, Ohio, where he studied law with Judge Safford, and was admitted to the bar in 1866. He was immediately chosen to the position of city solicitor. In 1867 he was elected to the house of the Fifty-eighth general assembly from Ross county, and refused a re-election.

He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Seventh district, Ross, Highland, Brown, Adams and Pike counties, and was re-elected to the Forty-fourth in 1874 from the same district. His ability in congress was fully recognized by his colleagues.

In 1893 he was a candidate for governor, and was defeated by William McKinley, Jr., by a vote of 433,342 to 352,347. In congress and on the political platform Mr. Neal was the champion of a revenue tariff as opposed to a protective tariff, and as a member of the committee on resolutions in the Democratic national convention at Chicago in 1892 he succeeded in having a clear and explicit declaration for a tariff for revenue only inserted in the

JAMES W. ROBINSON.

James W. Robinson of Marysville, Union county, was born on Darby Creek, that county, Nov. 26, 1826. He was reared on his father's farm, and attended the public schools. He attended college at Cannonsburg, Pennsyl-Vania, in 1845. After leaving that institution he followed the profession of teacher for some years. He graduated from the Cincinnati Law school in 1851; was admitted to practice, and soon after was elected prosecuting attorney of Union county.

He was elected to the lower house of the Fifty-third general assembly from Union county, and was re-elected to the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth. He made a creditable legislator. In 1872 he was elected to the Forty-third congress from the Ninth district, Union, Morrow, Knox, Hardin, Marion and Delaware, but was not re-elected. In politics he was a consistent and aggreslive Republican, and enjoyed the respect and confidence of his constituents.

HUGH J. JEWETT.

Hugh J. Jewett was born in Harford county, Maryland, in 1812, and died in the same state when past the age of 75. The most of his life, however, was passed in Ohio, at Zanesville and Columbus, where he was a leading lawyer, banker, railway president and promoter and Democratic leader.

He came to Ohio when a young man, and was admitted to the bar at 8t. Clairsville in 1840, where he began the practice of his profession. In 1848 he located at Zanesville, and entered the banking business, and was made president of the Muskingum branch of the State Bank of Ohio in 1852. He was a presidential elector in 1852, and supported Franklin Pierce for presi-

He was a member of the senate of the Fifty-first general assembly, and a member of the house in the Fifty-eighth, and in 1853 was appointed United States district attorney for the District of Ohio. In 1855 he entered upon his railway career, and became manager and afterward president of the Central Ohio road. He was subsequently connected officially with several of the leading Ohio railroads, in 1872 became receiver of the Erie road of New York, and managed its affairs for 10 years. as was a condidate for congress in 1860, but was defeated. In 1861 he was a candidate for governor, and was defeated by David Tod, Republican, by a vote of 206,997 to 151,774. He was an unsuccessful candidate for United States senator in 1863.

He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Twelfth district, Franklin, Pickaway, Fairfield and Perry counties, and resigned in 1874 to assume charge of the Erie railway. He retained his residence in Ohio until 1887, and then returned to his ancestral home in Maryland.

JOHN S. SAVAGE.

John S. Savage was born in Clermont county, Ohio, Oct. 31, 1841, and was reared on his father's farm. He attended the public schools and received a liberal education, after which he taught school successfully for a number of years, while he pursued the study of the law.

Having completed his legal studies, he was admitted to the bar in 1865, and began the practice of his profession in Wilmington, Clinton county, and quickly rose to prominence in his profession.

His election to congress was wholly unsought, and largely unexpected. He was a Democrat, and his district was overwhelmingly Republican. He accepted the nomination more to aid in maintaining the organization of his party than in the expectation of being elected. His opponent was John Q. Smith, the sitting member, and Mr. Savage was elected over him in 1874 to the Forty-fourth congress from the Third district, Clinton, Butler, Warren, Fayette and Clermont counties, by nearly 1,000 majority. At the succeeding congressional election, 1876, he was defeated by Mills Gardner, who served but a single term. Mr. Savage then resumed the practice of his profession.

It is rather a coincidence that of the four citizens of Clinton county, David Fisher, John Q. Smith, John S. Savage and Robert E. Doan, who were elected to congress during the century, and all of whom were men of more than ordinary ability, none served more than a single term.

MILTON I. SOUTHARD.

Milton I. Southard of Zanesville, now a prominent attorney in the city of New York, was born in Perryton, Licking county, Ohio, Oct. 20, 1836. He attended the public schools and graduated from Dennison university, at Granville in 1861. He read law and was admitted to the practice in 1863, locating at Zanesville. He was elected prosecuting attorney of Muskingum county three times, and was an exceptionally efficient officer. He enjoyed a large and lucrative practice.

He was a leading Democrat, and in 1872 was elected to the Forty-third congress from the Thirteenth district, composed of Muskingum, Licking, Coshocton and Tuscarawas counties; was re-elected to the Forty-fourth in 1874, and the Forty-fifth in 1876, from the same district.

He was a member of the committee on the revision of the laws of the United States, and chairman of the committee on territories. Colorado was admitted in 1876 on his report, and was the determining factor in the presidential election of that year. At the close of his congressional career, he located in New York, and was associated with General Thomas Ewing in the law practice.

JOHN BERRY.

John Berry of Wyandot was a well known and highly respected citizen of that community, and was sent to congress for a single term, as a recognition of the high esteem in which he was held by his fellow-citizens. He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Fourteenth district, Wyandot, Crawford, Richland, Ashland and Holmes. He was a Democrat; was a lawyer by profession, and was born in Crawford county, Ohio, April 26, 1833.

LAURIN D. WOODWORTH.

Laurin D. Woodworth of Youngstown occupied a prominent position in professional life in Mahoning and adjoining counties, and was a soldier during the civil war. He was twice elected to the state legislature and twice to congress, and in both instances served his constituents satisfactorily.

In 1867 he was elected to the Fifty-eighth general assembly, as a member of the senate from the Twenty-third Senatorial district, comprising the counties of Trumbull and Mahoning, and was re-elected to the Fifty-ninth general assembly from the same district in 1869.

He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Seventeenth district, consisting of the counties of Mahoning, Columbiana, Carroll and Stark, and was re-elected to the Forty-fourth from the same district in 1874. He was born in Windham, Ohio, Sept. 10, 1837.

RICHARD C. PARSONS.

Richard C. Parsons of Cleveland was born in New London, Connecticut, Oct. 10, 1826, and received a thorough education in the state of Massachusetts. He came to Cleveland in 1845, and continued to be one of its most prominent citizens for more than half a century. He read law and was admitted to the practice in 1851. He was one of the original Republicans, and served a number of terms in the city council, and filled other local positions. He was interested in all the public improvements and in many local enterprises, and enjoyed a lucrative law practice, taking rank among the foremost lawyers

He was elected to the Fifty-third general assembly from Cuyahoga county in 1857, and re-elected to the Fifty-fourth, and presided as speaker of the house in 1860-1861. In 1872 he was elected to the Forty-third congress from the Twentieth district, Cuyahoga county, and was defeated for re-election by Henry B. Payne.

He declined the position of minister to Chili; served one year as consul at Rio de Janeiro, and was collector of internal revenue at Cleveland. He successively refused the position of assistant secretary of the treasury and governor of Montana tendered him by President Andrew Johnson, declaring himself opposed to that gentleman's administrative policy. To emphasize these declarations he accepted the appointment, made by the justices, of marshal of the supreme court of the United States, which office he held from 1866 until he was elected to congress in 1872.

From 1877 to 1880 he was editor and part proprietor of the Cleveland Leader, and was a facile, forcible and brilliant editorial writer.

ISAAC R. SHERWOOD.

General Isaac R. Sherwood was prominent as a lawyer, a soldier, a newspaper editor and a political leader during the last half of the century. He was for many years a resident of Williams county. He was born Aug. 15, 1835, and attended the Hudson River institute, Clarnack, New York. He graduated from Antioch college, Ohio, and later from the Western Law school at Cleveland, and was admitted to the bar and became a leading attorney. In 1857 he established the Williams County Gazette, a Republican paper, and in 1859 was elected probate judge of Williams county. At the beginning of the civil war, April 18, 1861, he enlisted as a private soldier in the Fourteenth Ohio volunteer infantry, resigning both the office of mayor of Bryan and the lucrative office of probate judge of Williams county for the pay of a private soldier. At the close of his first enlistment he was made a lieutenant in the One Hundred and Eleventh Ohio Volunteer infantry, and was promoted through all the grades to colonel of the regiment, and was brevetted a brigadier general for gallant conduct at the battle of Franklin, Tennessee. He participated in the first actual battle of the war at Phillipi and at the last at Raleigh.

He participated in more than thirty actions during his military career, and was repeatedly complimented for his soldierly conduct. He was appointed commissioner for the Freedman's Bureau of Florida in February, 1865, but resigned after filling the position for a few weeks.

He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Sixth district, Williams, Fulton, Henry, Wood, Lucas and Ottawa counties, and served but a single term. He had previously been elected secretary of state, in 1868, as a Republican, over Thomas Hubbard, Democrat, by a vote of 267,066 to 249,-682, and was re-elected in 1870 over William Heisley, Democrat, by a vote of 221,708 to 205,018.

He was an editor of prominence, and was editorially connected with a number of leading newspapers, among them the Toledo Commercial, the Toledo Journal, the Cleveland Leader and the Canton Democrat. In 1880 he severed his connection with the Republican and affiliated with the Democratic party. In the closing months of the century he is one of the recognized and prominent leaders of the Democratic party of the state.

LAWRENCE T. NEAL.

Lawrence T. Neal of Chillicothe, and at this time of Columbus, has long been among the foremost lawyers and Democratic leaders of the state, and was five times a delegate to the national Democratic conventions. He was born at Parkersburg, now West Virginia, Sept. 22, 1844, and was educated at a private academy in that city.

When 20 years of age he migrated to Chillicothe, Ross county, Ohio, where he studied law with Judge Safford, and was admitted to the bar in 1866. He was immediately chosen to the position of city solicitor. In 1867 he was elected to the house of the Fifty-eighth general assembly from Ross county, and refused a re-election.

He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Seventh district, Ross, Highland, Brown, Adams and Pike counties, and was re-elected to the Forty-fourth in 1874 from the same district. His ability in congress was fully recognized by his colleagues.

In 1893 he was a candidate for governor, and was defeated by William McKinley, Jr., by a vote of 433,342 to 352,347. In congress and on the political platform Mr. Neal was the champion of a revenue tariff as opposed to a protective tariff, and as a member of the committee on resolutions in the Democratic national convention at Chicago in 1892 he succeeded in having a clear and explicit declaration for a tariff for revenue only inserted in the

JAMES W. ROBINSON.

James W. Robinson of Marysville, Union county, was born on Darby Greek, that county, Nov. 26, 1826. He was reared on his father's farm, and attended the public schools. He attended college at Cannonsburg, Pennsyl-Vania, in 1845. After leaving that institution he followed the profession of teacher for some years. He graduated from the Cincinnati Law school in 1851; was admitted to practice, and soon after was elected prosecuting attorney of Union county.

He was elected to the lower house of the Fifty-third general assembly from Union county, and was re-elected to the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth. He made a creditable legislator. In 1872 he was elected to the Forty-third congress from the Ninth district, Union, Morrow, Knox, Hardin, Marion and Delaware, but was not re-elected. In politics he was a consistent and aggresave Republican, and enjoyed the respect and confidence of his constituents.

HUGH J. JEWETT.

Hugh J. Jewett was born in Harford county, Maryland, in 1812, and died in the same state when past the age of 75. The most of his life, however, was passed in Ohio, at Zanesville and Columbus, where he was a leading lawyer, banker, railway president and promoter and Democratic leader.

He came to Ohio when a young man, and was admitted to the bar at 8t. Clairsville in 1840, where he began the practice of his profession. In 1848 he located at Zanesville, and entered the banking business, and was made president of the Muskingum branch of the State Bank of Ohio in 1852. He was a member of the senate of the Fifty-first general assembly, and a member of the house in the Fiftyeighth, and in 1853 was appointed United States district attorney for the District of Ohio. In 1855 he entered upon his railway career, and became manager and afterward president of the Central Ohio road. He was subsequently connected officially with several of the leading Ohio railroads, in 1872 became receiver of the Erie road of New York, and managed its affairs for 10 years. at was a condidate for congress in 1800, but was defeated. In 1861 he was a candidate for governor, and was defeated by David Tod, Republican, by a vote of 206,997 to 151,774. He was an unsuccessful candidate for United States senator in 1863.

He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Twelfth district, Franklin, Pickaway, Fairfield and Perry counties, and resigned in 1874 to assume charge of the Erie railway. He retained his residence in Ohio until 1887, and then returned to his ancestral home in Maryland.

JOHN S. SAVAGE.

John S. Savage was born in Clermont county, Ohio, Oct. 31, 1841, and was reared on his father's farm. He attended the public schools and received a liberal education, after which he taught school successfully for a number of years, while he pursued the study of the law.

Having completed his legal studies, he was admitted to the bar in 1865, and began the practice of his profession in Wilmington, Clinton county, and quickly rose to prominence in his profession.

His election to congress was wholly unsought, and largely unexpected. He was a Democrat, and his district was overwhelmingly Republican. He accepted the nomination more to aid in maintaining the organization of his party than in the expectation of being elected. His opponent was John Q. Smith, the sitting member, and Mr. Savage was elected over him in 1874 to the Forty-fourth congress from the Third district, Clinton, Butler, Warren, Fayette and Clermont counties, by nearly 1,000 majority. At the succeeding congressional election, 1876, he was defeated by Mills Gardner, who served but a single term. Mr. Savage then resumed the practice of his profession.

It is rather a coincidence that of the four citizens of Clinton county, David Fisher, John Q. Smith, John S. Savage and Robert E. Doan, who were elected to congress during the century, and all of whom were men of more than ordinary ability, none served more than a single term.

MILTON I. SOUTHARD.

Milton I. Southard of Zanesville, now a prominent attorney in the city of New York, was born in Perryton, Licking county, Ohio, Oct. 20, 1836. He attended the public schools and graduated from Dennison university, at Granville in 1861. He read law and was admitted to the practice in 1863, locating at Zanesville. He was elected prosecuting attorney of Muskingum county three times, and was an exceptionally efficient officer. He enjoyed a large and lucrative practice.

He was a leading Democrat, and in 1872 was elected to the Forty-third congress from the Thirteenth district, composed of Muskingum, Licking, Coshocton and Tuscarawas counties; was re-elected to the Forty-fourth in 1874, and the Forty-fifth in 1876, from the same district.

He was a member of the committee on the revision of the laws of the United States, and chairman of the committee on territories. Colorado was admitted in 1876 on his report, and was the determining factor in the presidential election of that year. At the close of his congressional career, he located in New York, and was associated with General Thomas Ewing in the law practice.

JOHN BERRY.

John Berry of Wyandot was a well known and highly respected citizen of that community, and was sent to congress for a single term, as a recognition of the high esteem in which he was held by his fellow-citizens. He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Fourteenth district, Wyandot, Crawford, Richland, Ashland and Holmes. He was a Democrat; was a lawyer by profession, and was born in Crawford county, Ohio, April 26, 1833.

LAURIN D. WOODWORTH.

Laurin D. Woodworth of Youngstown occupied a prominent position in professional life in Manoning and adjoining counties, and was a soldier during the civil war. He was twice elected to the state legislature and twice to congress, and in both instances served his constituents satisfactorily.

In 1867 he was elected to the Fifty-eighth general assembly, as a member of the senate from the Twenty-third Senatorial district, comprising the counties of Trumbull and Mahoning, and was re-elected to the Fifty-ninth general assembly from the same district in 1869.

He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Seventeenth district, consisting of the counties of Mahoning, Columbiana, Carroll and Stark, and was re-elected to the Forty-fourth from the same district in 1874. He was born in Windham, Ohio, Sept. 10, 1837.

Maresca, While Intoxicated In Naples, Overheard to Make Such a Remark. Investigation by Taylor.

New York, Aug. 21.-Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Taylor left for Washington. While here he investigated the cases of the two Italians, Maresca and Guida, but refused to say anything before reaching Washington. It was learned that suspicion as to the coming of Maresca was inspired by rival detective bureaus, which were anxious to place the man under arrest on the strength of an anonymous letter received by the American consul at Naples. Commissioner Fitchie said that late Saturday evening a letter was received from Consul Byington. of Naples, enclosing a copy of a letter dated August 2, in which an anonymous writer stated that he had overheard a conversation between Maresca and another Italian in a saloon, during which Maresca, who was intoxicated, had said that he was about to sai! for the United States to kill President McKinley. The consul added, according to Commissioner Fitchie, that he had cabled the information to Washington, and that he had mailed copies of the letter to various European ports and to ports of entry in the United States, giving a description of Maresca. Mr. Fitchie said in addition that not only were secret service officers informed of this matter, but the New York police had had information of it from the Paris police officials.

Buggy Went Over a Small Bridge.

BADLY

Charles Simms, of Third street, met with a painful accident while driving on the old camp ground road last

Simms, in company with James Rigby, was out gathering mushrooms and was returning to the city between 7:30 and 8 o'clock.

It was very dark and Simms, who was driving, let the horse take its own course. Aa short distance above the Jethro bridge there is a small gutter crossing the road being covered with plank. The buggy missed the plank and dropped into the gutter, throwing both occupants out. Simms was picked up and taken to his home and Dr. Elliott summoned.

An examination showed that his collar bone and shoulder blade were broken and several other bones splintered. His injuries were not dressed until this morning and he is resting as easy as could be expected this afternoon.

Theh buggy passed over Rigby, but he was uninjured beyond a few

MAY GET A CALL.

It is Said Dr. L. F. Laverty, of Wellsville, May Receive a Call to Point Breeze.

The Pittsburg Dispatch has the following to say of Dr. L. F. Laverty, who has been mentioned as a probability for the pastorate of the First Presbyterian church, of this city:

Rev. L. F. Laverty, who preached in the Point Breeze Presbyterian church last Sunday and will preach in the First Presbyterian church of Alleghemy next Sunday, made a favorable impression. He is spoken of for the vacant pulpit of the Point Breeze church. This church has been without a pastor since the death of Rev. Dr. Solon Cobb last May.

Dr. Laverty was born in Finleyville, Washington county, and graduated from Lafayette college and the Western Theological seminary. He was licensed to preach by the Pittsburg presbytery in 1884, ordained the following year by the presbytery of Wooster and installed over the Presbyterian church at Apple Creek, where he remained five years.

Mr. Laverty became pastor of the 0., in 1890. He was there two years. He then went to Los Angeles, Cal., and was there until last year, when he took charge of the Presbyterian church at Wellsville, O., where he is at present located.

FRANCIS BARNES

WILL BE PROVIDED WITH A HOME VERY SOON.

Humane Officer Miller Has Found an Excellent Home for the Little Girl.

Humane Officer Miller has become IHE weary of the constant jangle over the custody of little Francis Barnes, and It Was Dark as Pitch and the has decided to dispose of the matter

> He claims to be the only person, as the matter now stands, who has the right to dispose of the girl, since no INJURED steps were taken by the Barnes or any one else to get possession of the child through the proper channel, the probate court, and he has at last found a home for the little girl.

The parties who propose taking the ing. girl do not reside in the city, but, according to the opinion of the officer, a most excellent family and the home which Francis will thus be provided with all that could be desired.

The matter will be up to the Barnes, or any one who might object to the action on the part of the officer, to take some action. Unless they go about it in the proper way it is likely nothing more will ever be heard of the

His Trouble.

Sunday night about 1:30 o'clock a burglar was discovered in the home of W. B. Cole, Sixth street.

He was discovered by Edward Holtz-Presbyterian church at New Lisbon, man, who is visiting Cole, and a revolver was secured and the two young men went after the would-be thief. The thief ran and jumped over the rear fence and escaped.

He secured nothing for his trouble.

HOUSE BURNED

The Fire Took Place This Morning and the Blaze Could Not Be Extinguished.

FAMILY WERE ASLEEP

When the Fire Started but a Child Woke Up and Gave the Alarm.

DENSMORE WAS WORK

The home of Reuben Densmore was totally destroyed by fire this morn-

Densmore lives out the California Hollow road a short distance from the old Dixon rice pond, and consequently is away from the city water mains.

He usually goes to work at an early hour and this morning arose as usual, got his own breakfast and came to the city, leaving his family still in bed

Some time after he hal left one of his children was awakened by a crackling sound and made the startling discovery that the house was in flames.

The balance of the family were aroused and succeded in getting out of is in the city the guest of Mr. and the house.

Assistance was called and everything possible was done to save the arrived in the city today and is the house, but it was no use, it having received too great a start.

Some things were rescued from the flames, but in a remarkably short time what had been the home of Mr. Densmore was in ashes.

The house is a total loss.

AT THE DRESDEN

A SMOKE CONSUMER HAS BEEN ADDED TO THE PLANT.

The Result is a Saving of at Least 30 Per Cent in the Matter of Fuel.

The Dresden pottery today completed the work of adding a new and very economical appliance to their already modern and up-to-date plant.

The apparatus is a new smoke consumer and is attached to the stack just above the boiler, and is intended to be run by steam, although Engineer George Btt has attached a belt to the machine and gets good results in that way, but the machine will run faster and more satisfactory when propelled by steam.

The smoke is caught immediately after leaving the furnace and forced by a system of fans back into the furnace, where it is consumed and a saving of about 30 per cent in the way of fuel is the result.

Engineer Btt states that the system was introduced after considerable time and money had been expended, and was now in perfect working or-

It was learned today that several other factories in the city contemplate adding the improvement to their plants, as in cases where coal is used the saving is great, besides being much cleaner.

The draft, the engineer states, is much better since the application of the consumer and the fire is more even and requires less attention.

And Was Raising a Row at the Cartwright Pottery Last Evening.

OFFICER WOODS ARRESTED HIM

Business Is Slow In the Court of Mayor Davidson This Week.

A WOMAN HAD SOME TROUBLES

Business is not brisk in the mayor's court, and but one solitary drunk was gathered in last night.

The patrol was summoned to Cartwright's pottery, where Patrick Klunk was raising a row. He was drunk and succeeded in annoying everybody in the neighborhood. He told himself he was a little the best man in town, and of course he believed it and attempted also to convince a man named Robertson of the fact. Pat Woods brought them both to jail and Klunk was locked up. There was nothing against Robertson and he was permitted to go.

Klunk was arraigned later and the mayor fined him $5 60.

A lady came to the mayor yesterday and from her appearance she had troubles of her own. This proved to be the case. She told the mayor that her husband was not treating her right and they quarreled constantly. She did not want him arrested, but wanted to know if there was not some other way. The mayor thought not, and gave the woman some good, sound, sensible advice and she went home.

David Watson last evening filed a complaint against James Brannan charging him with attempting to provoke a breach of the peace. Brannan called Watson some nasty names and invited him off the car to fight. Watson feared he would get the worst of it if he did and made the charge.

Brannan will be looked after at once by the police.

Baydy Cain was arrested this morning by Chief Thompson on a charge of being implicated in the row on the river bank Saturday night in which Mike Sullivan was badly whipped. He was captured in a Second street saloon and was very drunk. He will be given a hearing in the morning when he gets sober.

Eva Wedgewood filed a charge before the mayor last evening against Joseph Heckathorne of using disparaging remarks to a lady. He was taken in by Chief Thompson, and having no witnesses to prove his innocence, was compelled to plead guilty.

The mayor fined him $2 and costs, and he gave an order on his employer for the amount.

India Children Must Be Cared For and Are Dependent Upon Christian World.

COSTS $15 PER YEAR

To Support an Orphan and You Can Remit Quarterly If You Want to.

THE ORPHAN

The magnificent opportunity offered the Christian people by the acceptance of the legacy of the great famine in India-its orphans-has the added advantage of holding a plain duty. These children are left to us, are dependent upon the generosity of the Christian world, and are its most hopeful material for the advancement of its cause.

We believe that the Christian people of this land will neither shirk the responsibility nor neglect the opportunity. It must be met, not only with courage, but with gladness in our hearts.

We, who have been dealt with so generously, have been given so much of this world's goods, have had our loved ones spared to us, must give evidence of our gratitude. We must make a thank offering.

To those who have been called upon to part with loved ones this offers an opportunity for the upbuilding of a lasting, living memorial.

To the business man, so overwhelmed with pressing cares, and with the inner consciousness of a wish to do good and no time to devote to it, a way is opened. It takes no longer to of borrowers to a nation of lenders. sign a check giving to a little child the gift of life than it does to sign one for the payment of an unwelcome bill; and this bill so justly due, in return for all the business successes of the past year, is so very small-fifpleasure of having saved a little child's life! A lady in Kentucky, sending support for an orphan, says: "We realize that this is indeed a great opportunity to Christianize India-even the children are helping." The children are helping, indeed. A little boy in ican authority must be supreme West Virginia writes in childish hand: "I feel so sorry for the poor little orphans in India that I want to send a no abatement of our rights, no abanlittle mite that I earned myself. A postmaster in Utah, in sending a contribution for the orphans, adds the high purpose of this nation to this word:

"This money has been gathered by two tiny girls 8 years old. It represents long walks in a burning sun and shows devoted patience, which, if copied by older people, would soon result in caring for these helpless little children of India."

The pastor of a small charge in the support, in pledging care for an orphan, writes: "May the God of heav- ers, after which there will be dancing. en smile upon the orphans and may Admission 10 cents.

they be provided for out of His bountiful fulness."

A business man in Kansas, in sending support for three orphans in India. says: "The education and religious training of the young seems to promise rich results for the conversion of India."

Realizing the truth of this, the King's Daughters, Christian Endeavorers and other young people's societies. the members of the W. C. T. U. and the churches of every denomination are embracing this opportunity.

To adopt a famine orphan, send your name and address (with your denominational preference) to India Famine Orphan Relief Work, Care of the Christian Herald, 92 Bible House, New York City. Send also your first contribution toward the support of your protege. As the annual cost of supporting an orphan is $15 you may remit either a quarter, half year's or whole year's contribution in advance, as you may decide. The fund will reply by sending you the name and address of the missionary at whose orphanage your protege is to be cared for, fed, sheltered and trained. You will also receive regular letters from your orphan ward, if the child is of an age to write. If you cannot assume care of an orphan send a contribution to the orphan fund, which, being joined to others, will care for one of these helpless little children.

CRADE. CROSSINGS.

An Interesting Decision Handed Down by the Attorney General of Ohio.

The people of East Liverpool will be interested in a decision given by Attorney General Sheets, in which he holds that where a railroad company, either steam or electric, seeks to cross, at grade, another railroad, the railroad commissioner has authority to order a safety device to be put in at the cost of the company seeking to cross the tracks of other railroads. Such device is to be maintained jointly by the two companies. The ruling does not include the appointment of a watchman, this not being a safety device.

While the commissioner of railroads cannot arbitrarily and without reason order any kind of safety device or interlocker, he is given a wide discretion, and unless it is abused, there is no appealing from his decision. If the commissioner is of the opinion. based on the peculiarities of any crossing, that there ought to be a combination of the safety device and gates, the railroad companies must submit to his judgment.

SHAMROCKS ARE THE CHAMPIONS

They Took the Deciding Game of the Series From the Eclipse Club.

ONLY FIVE INNINGS PLAYED

But That Was Long Enough to Permit the Shamrocks to Make Five Runs.

THE ECLIPSE DIDN'T

The ball game yesterday afternoon between the Shamrock and Eclipse clubs did not last quite five innings but that was long enough for the Shamrocks to defeat the Eclipse boys 5 to 0 and win the championship of the city.

The game started promptly at 4 o'clock and Kennedy opened the game by striking out, but Davis dropped the third strike and Kennedy was out at first. Emmerling was hit by a pitched ball and Chadwick hit to middle for a single. Heckathorne struck out and Davis went out from Barker to Heckathorne.

In the Shamrocks half Smurthwaite went out from Stillwell to Gibson and Kennedy fell down on Davis' slow grounder. Just at this juncture it rained, and it was no easy rain either. It came down in torrents and in a short time the diamond looked like a miniature lake. When it had cleared up the players organized a broom and shovel brigade and cleaned it off and the game resumed at 5:20 o'clock. Davis never got any further than first base, as the next two men up went

The Eclipse in the second went out in one, two, three order and the Shamrocks managed to get a man to first but he was retired by the finest double play ever made on the grounds. Lynch hit a short fly to middle, Chadwick by a desperate run caught the ball a few inches from the ground and without straightening up threw to first and nipped Barker, who had taken a lead.

The Shamrocks scored two in the fourth on a wild pitch and an error by Emmerling. They received three in the fifth on an error by Stillwell and one by Emmerling, who threw the ball to left field in attempting to put Webb out at third base. It began to ache. rain again and the game ended with two hands out.

Terrific Windstorm Struck Sheboygan, Wis.

200 SMALL HOUSES BLOWN DOWN.

Eight Large Buildings Wrecked - The Loss About $300,000 - People Thrown Down and a Number Bruised, but No One Killed.

Sheboygan, Wis., Aug. 21.-A terrific windstorm struck this city, comng suddenly from the north. Eight large buildings were completely wrecked and 200 small houses were blown down, causing a loss of about $300,000.

At noon it was as dark as night and intensely hot. A few moments before 1 o'clock the storm broke, increasing in force until it became a tornado. People were thrown down and fences and signs hurled hundreds of feet. The storm, which raged for only about ten minutes, was two miles wide and wrecked the buildings.

The street car barns were wrecked and cars were smashed to pieces. The electric wires were all blown down.

The roof of the warehouse of the Crocker Chair company was blown off and thrown against the factory, wrecking the building.

The tent over a horse and some ponies was torn from the ground and blown away, leaving the animals to run panicstricken through the city

The roof of the Schrier brewery was lifted from the building and carried over 150 yards.

The American Folding Bed company's plant was demolished and the sheds in the A. Zimball & Sons' brickyards were blown down.

The steeple of the Lutheran church was blown down into two residences, smashing the roofs. The Fourth ward schoolhouse was completely wrecked. The plant of the Optenberg & Sonne man company was partially wrecked. The following suffered heavy losses: Henry Tillman, Herman Dehne, Otto Zoerns, Thomas Atkins, Gustave Roehcorn, William Gold.

The wind wrecked building after building with the greatest rapidity, and there was little warning of the approach of the storm. The people in every case, however, were out of their houses before the storm struck, and those who were hit by flying debris were only slightly injured. In the factories the employes were in many cases bruised and cut from wreckage.

CHAFFEE AND HIS BOYS.

General Chaffee and his boys have been doing very gallant work in China. It is now in line for Bryan and his followers to howl against the spirit of imperialism which characterizes our gallant officers and men.

War was inevitable with Spain. As the sequence of that war and the defeat of the Spanish forces, Manila and the Philippines came into our possion. With peace in the Philippines lem this week.

and trade in full swing, the land will prove a grand acquisition to the United States. Billie Jennings Bryan and his followers have done all in their power to encourage the insurgents, and thus render peace almost an impossibility. The voters of the nation will teach these encouragers of treason a much needed lesson the coming fall. The great pity is that Billie and his friend Atkinson, in company with a few more leaders of like ilk, are not banished to Luzon and placed within the insurgent lines, in company with Aguinaldo and his follow- WERE DRAWN LAST EVENING ers, so that the bullets of an incensed soldiery might go hunting after their cowardly carcasses. The only trouble And Ordered to Report at the would be that these treason encouragers would keep so far in the rear that the longest range gun invented could not send a bullet far enough to reach them.,

TREACHERY.

And now Conger informs us that Chinese treachery held full sway at Peking and that the imperial troops attempted the destruction of the legations, hiding behind the excuse that the Boxers were attempting the murderous work. Conger says that the allied forces reached Peking in the nick of time. China has danced to her heart's content, and now she will be compelled to pay the fiddler. Wonder if Billie Jennings Bryan will declare Wm. McKinley, president of the United States, an autocrat, despot and imperialist, in consequence of the president hurrying the rescuing force forward to Peking? Billie and his gang will be sick of the words"antiimperialist" before the coming campaign is over. The masses of our American people hate a coward above all things else.

Why Called Hangers.

Wall paper does not hang, and yet the person whose business it is to paste it up is called a paper hanger. The reason is simple. Long before the introduction of wall papers, Arras, a town of France, was famous for its tapestries, called "arras." These were used as wall coverings and the men who were employed to put them up were called hangers.

Owing to the Death of a Member of the Firm.

New York, Aug. 21.-There was no

radical change Monday in the character of recent stock market operations. General news bearing on the situation was scant, but what there was was further ammunition for the bears. London, which has latterly been a buy. er, turned seller for a small amount and western offerings were effective in special stocks. General weakness occurred in stocks with which the firm of Flower & Co. is identified, following the announcement of the death of a member of the firm. These include half a dozen of the most active issues. and losses ranged 1 to 2 points, with Brooklyn Transit and People's Gas Elsewhere selling was in leading. mderate volume, but some rather pronounced declines occurred in Sugar, Tobacco, Consolidated Gas and Metropolitan Street railway. Railroad stocks were much better statained htan the specialties, declines extending to a point only in St. Paul and Rock Island. While the general tone throughout the greater part of the day was reactionary, there were periods of steadiness when the shorts reduced their lines. Some comment was aroused by the sudden marking up of General Electric to 140%. Its closing price n Saturday was 136. Reports of a combination with a rival concern and excellent earnings were circulated, of which there was no confirmation. Fluctuations in the steel group were comparatively narrow, but early losses were generally recovered in the late afternoon on reports of improved trade conditions. A matter f interest in cnnection with the international monetary situation was the decline in call money in London to 21/2 per cent. This circumstance was attributed to receipts of gold by the Bank of England amounting to $4..670,000. This amount included the $3,250,000 gold exported from here Saturday week. The sub-treasury statement for Monday showed that it was a debtor at the clearing house to the unusual amount of $3,162,900. Payments by the government on account of the redemotion of the old 2 per cent bonds for Saturday and Monday amounted to $3, 32,019. In the last half hour of trading People's Gas and Brooklyn Transit were bid up over a point from the lowest, which exerted a stimulating effect on the entire list. The closing was steady, with a rally in prog-I nds showed irregularity, but charges were small. Total sales, par value, $655,000. U. S. new 4s advanced 1/4 in the bid price.

JUSTICE GREEN'S FUNERAL.

at Easton, Pa.-Gov. Stone One of the Pallbearers.

Easton, Pa., Aug. 21.—The funeral of the late Chief Justice Henry Green, of the supreme court of Pennsylvania. took place from the homestead here, and was attended by members of the ferent parts of the state, Governr Sone and a number of other prominent men in public life.

The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. L. W. Eckard, pastor of the Brainard Union Presbyterian church, and were public.

The pallbearers were Governor Stone, General Frank Reeder, Senator J. Heny Cockran, of Williamsport; Judge Samuel Justin Thompson, of Philadelphia; Judge Michael Arnold, of Philadelphia; Judge Charles A. Mayer, of Lockhaven; ex-Judge Oliver H. Meyer. of Easton: Judge Henry W. Scott, of Easton: Hon. Charles Brodhead and John Fritts, of Bethlehem; Hon. .Samuel Boileau and Henry A. Sage, of Easton. The members of the supreme court who attended the obsequies were Justice J. Brewster McCollum, who succeeds Chief Justice Green as the head of the bench, of Montrose; Justice James T. Mitchell, of Philadelphia; Justice D. Newton Fell, of Philadelphia; Justice J. Hay Brown, of Lan-caster and Justice S. Leslie Metrezat, of Uniontown. Among other prominent men present were Charles S. Green, of Philadelphia, prothonatary of the Eastern district of the supreme court; Senator William S., Johnson, of Hackensack, N. J.: Judge Allen Craig, of Mauck Chunk; Rodney A. Mercur, of Towanda.

The justices of the supreme court when they reached Easton were met at the railroad station by a delegation of members of the Northampton County bar.

A MEETING

spent All Afternoon Discussing Matters Laid Over at the Last Meeting.

Property Owners Had Attorneys Present to Object to the Size of Their Assessments.

A COMMITTEE WAS APPOINTED

A special meeting of council was held yesterday afternoon to dispose of several questions which were referred to it at the last meeting.

All members were present except Arnold, Smith and Cripps.

The most important matter demanding attention was the question of assessments for street and sewer on Bradshaw avenue.

Attorneys R. G. Thompson and Hollis Grosshans were present to represent the property owners on that thoroughfare.

At the time the street was paved and sewered the assessment was made on the abutting property per foot front, combining the two assessments in one. This the property owners object to, claiming it is too high.

A good deal of discussion took place on this matter as to the best method of settling the question to the satisfaction of the property owners.

It was finally decided to appoint a committee to consist of Messrs. Peach, Marshall and McHenry, who, with the engineer and solicitor will meet the kickers and their attorneys at the office of H. E. Grosshans at 7:30 tonight, at which time an endeavor will be made to adjust the difficulty.

Councilman Peach brought up a question that has been agitated for some time by all parties having anything to do with the patrol depart-

The mayor and others have thought for some time that the patrol wagon should be covered, as about the oneing the case the patrol should by all Elliott and F. B. Chambers. means be covered.

It was so decided, and the work will be done at once.

A number of other assessment matters were brought up, notably that of the extension of East Market street, but no definite action could be taken.

The session lasted the entire afternoon until almost 6 o'clock.

They Should Remember.

Southern voters should remember that more new factories have sprung up in the south since the Dingley tariff became a law than were ever erected in that section for years previously.

At the Workhouse.

There were 97 prisoners confined in the Canton workhouse Saturday hight. Of this number but seven were women. This is the largest number at the institution for a long time.

Making Improvements.

Two new decorating kilns are being erected by the Keswick China company at their plant on Brady's Run. The company also contemplates building a two-story decorating room.

SUBURBAN NEWS.

EAST END. FREAKS OF LICHTNING.

East End People Were Severely Shocked Yesterday Afternoon During the Storm.

The lightning played some queerpranks in East End yesterday. It struck a pole on the corner of Mulberry and River streets and several persons in the neighborhood suffered a shock. Mrs. Douglass was prostrated for some time, Mrs. English was so badly shocked that it was necessary to call a physician; little Margaret Snowden, who was standing a few steps from the door, was knocked down, and others were very badly frightened.

A pole with a battery on it standing just in front of Dr. Marshall's residence was struck, and some boys who had their hands on the patrol box were knocked in all directions. A man who was leaning against another pole has a very lame arm as a result of the bolt.

Considerable damage was done in the shape of burning out lights and telephones, and the insulators at the fire station were broken to pieces.

ALLIES NEEDED MEN

Urgent Requests Came From ing Tuesday. Pekin for More Troops.

Goodnow Sent Message That Governor of Shantung Made a Statemeni That Empress Left the Capital on 13th for Sinan Fu-Ching and Tuan in Peking.

London, Aug. 21.-- News received here indicated that the allies were in need of reinforcements.

The commander of the Italian second-class cruiser Fieramosca telegraphs from Taku, according to the Rome correspondent of The between the powers and the Chinese Daily Mail, that very urgent requests were coming from Peking should be permitted to enter Peking on Saturday for the immediate dispatch of further troops, and that, ers in answer to these, 400 Italian marines were sent off post haste.

Washington, Aug. 21.-The state department made public the following: "Che Foo, Aug. 20.

"Secretary of State, Washington: "Twentieth-Ragsdale reports Chinese troops surrounded in palace grounds Fowler." Ragsdale is consul of the United States at Tien Tsin.

The state department issued the following statement: The acting secretary of state made public the receipt of a telegram today (Aug. 20) from Consul General Goodnow, dated the 20th inst., reporting a statement of the governor of Shantung that the empress left Peking on the 13th for Sinan Fu, in the province of Shensi, and of its purpose in reply to China's apthat Princes Ching and Tuan and plication, and there is still a slight Vicceroy Kang Yi are still in Peking.

"Sinan Fu" appears to be another phonetic version of the name of the capital of Shensi-where there is an fore the final determination on the reimperial palace. It is otherwise spelled Hsi An, Si An and Si Ngan, the suffix "Fu" denoting the city, which is the seat of administration.

Washington, Aug. 21,-The Japanese legation received several important dispatches. One received from Tokio, dated August 19, said:

"After entry into Peking was effected by the allied troops the Japanese troops on August 15 betook themselves to and remained in the imperial palace. A body of Japanese troops was told to guard the palace, and here they met with obstinate resistance by the Chinese troops. Fighting is sill going on. The headquarters of the Japanese army is in the legation and the division is mainly quartered in the villages outside of n Ting Men."

Another telegram, dated the 19th, gave the report of the Japanese consul general at Shanghai, saying Sheng credits the report that the empress dowager and probably the emperor also had left Peking, as the privy council crossed the Lukon bridge on the 12th, bearing the banner of the imperial cortege. Also that Prince Ching is still in Peking, although Prince Tuan has followed the empress dowager.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The state department received a dispatch from Consul Fowler, dated Che Foo, August 15. It relates to the massacre of missionaries and others at Pao Ting Fu, which has been referred to a number of times in the press dispatches, and has generally been conceded to have occurred on June 30. The first part of the dispatch is so badly mangled in transmission that it is impossible to make much of it. The text is as follows:

"Che Foo, Received Aug. 15... "Secretary of State, Washington: "Evening, 13th-Reported all Presbyterian missionaries Pao Ting Fu killed June 30; premises burned same (night?); Catholic mission. stopped work. July 1st attacked American (board?) (Pitkin?) shot dead trying to keep gang out. Misses Morrell, Gould taken Boxer headquarters, killed. (Bagnall?) killed near (Temple?) Cooper and Belgians' fate uncertain. Officials had sent all home from men. All natives connected foreigners suffered like fate. Authority: Special messenger sent by Tien Tsin mission-Fowler."

APPEAL OF CHINA

MAY BE REJECTED.

LA Asked That Conger or Some Other Official Might Be Appointed to Conduct Negotiations.

Washington, Aug. 21.—The American the twelfth census, is 1,608,575. reply to Chinas latest appeal for a cessation of hostilities, received today from Li Hung Chang, had not yet been made known when this article was written, and the matter may receive some consideration at the cabinet meet-

The Chinese government, through Li, made application to the United States for the appiontment of Minister Conger or some other American official, with CHINESE SURROUNDED AT PALACE authority to open negotiations for the establishment of peace and for fixing definite terms for the settlement of the present trouble. The application came to the Chinese minester, and was taken by him to the state depart-There is reason to believe that the 12 have not been complied with, and until complied with the government's course must proceed without reference to China's desire for a halt in the proceedings. The dispatch of August 12 said specifically that the United States was ready to enter into an agreement government for a cessation of histilities on condition that the relief forces unmolested" and escort the legationtherefrom under such circumstances therefrom under such circumstances as the commanding general might lay down. But up to the present time there is no evidence that the allied forces are unmolested at Peking or have received the sanction of the imperial government to convey the legationers to Tien Tsin without further trouble, and under the conditions laid down by the commanding general On the contrary, all of the dispatches indicate that the allies are meeting stubborn resistance, and there is an entire lack of compliance with the conditions laid down by the United States in its dispatch of August 12, as stated above When the foregoing was written, the government had given no authoritative statement chance that complete compliance with the demands of August 12 be announced in the Peking dispatches beply is made. The United States government also might wish to first consult with other powers.

A DINNER GIVEN IN HIS HONOR.

Cabinet Members and Others Present, The President and His Running Mate Later Held a Conference—The Governor Expected to Return to New York Today.

the ground that the conditions laid Washington, Aug. 21. - Governor down in the American note of August Theodore Roosevelt, of New York, has been in Washington, the guest of President McKinley at the white house. The governor arrived here shortly after 6 o'clock last eyening, against the United States was mainand was met at the station by Secretary Cortelyou, who escorted him to the executive masnion. In anticipation of Governor Roosevelt's visit the president and Mrs. McKinley had invited the cabinet members and others to meet the governor at dinner at the white house, the party including Postmaster General Emory Smith, Secretary and Mrs. Gage, Secretary Wilson and Secetary Hitchcock and Adjuant General Corbin. Soon after the dinner the invited guests withdrew.

Various political and other matteds were discussed by the presidential and vice presidential candidates, the conference lasting until about midnight. No statement other than that this was made as to the conference and Governor Roosevelt asked newspaper men to excuse him last night, promising to see them in the morning. During the evening Comptroller wawes called on some business with the president. Later in hte evening the comptroller left for New York. The visit of Governor Roosevelt was entirely unexpected, and his presence in the city was not generally known. He expects to remain today, when he will return to New York, but at what hour he has not yet determined.

STEWART WILL VOTE FOR PRESIDENT M'KINLEY.

He Declared That Democrats Urged War With Spain and Denouce Its Fruit-Other Points.

New York, Aug. 21.-Senator William M. Stewart, of Nevada, called at Republican headquarters and said he had decided to vote for President Mc-Kinley. He made a statement in part as follows:

"The United States went to war with Spain urged on by the Democratic party. The popularity of the war was such that Mr. Bryan joined the army. The war was successful, a treaty of peace was entered into whereby the United States ageed to pay $20,000,000 and accept the sovereignty and public the ratification of the treaty. Mr. Bryan came to Washington and persuaded his Democratic friends to vote for the treaty, and it was through his influence that the treaty was finally ratified. It then became the duty of the United States to maintain law and order and protect the lives and property of all residents in the islands, whether native or foreign-born. The United States at the time of the ratification of the treaty held military possession of Manila, and immediately after such ratification assumed the sovereignty of the islands. The people of the United States, and particularly of the Pacific coast, became entitled to the vast commerce of the Pacific ocean, of which the Philippines furnished the key.

"One Aguinaldo raised a rebellion in Luzon against Spain before the commencement of the Spanish war with the United States. This adventurer had sold out or settled his rebellion with Spain for $400,000 before Dewey set sail for Manila, and as a part of the bargain with Spain, Aguinaldo agreed to leave the islands and never return.

"Dewey took the wily agitator back to the islands, supposing, as a matter of course, that Aguinaldo would naturally be an enemy of Spain and a friend of the United States. In this Admiral Dewey was mistaken. Aguinaldo, as soon as he landed on his native soil, organized a rebellion against the United States, which would have been of little consequence if he had not been able to obtain comfort and aid in this country. An organization was formed in the United States called the Anti-Imperialistic league, which has for the last two years co-operated with Aguinaldo's Tagal junta, with headquarters at Hongkong to supply literature and means of war for Aguinaldo. President McKinley had no authority to buy out Aguinaldo's rebellion against the United States, but was bound by the treaty (which was the Wayne.

supreme law of the land) to maintain law and order and protect life and property in the islands. It required a large army and the expenditure of hundreds of millions of dollars to put down Aguinaldo's rebellion. The assistance and encouragement he received from the Anti-Imperialistic league and the enemies of the United States. both at home and abroad, made his barbarous and irregular war bloody and expensive. Congress, however, made all necessary appropriations providing the executive men and money to maintain the authority of the United States in the Philippines. The so-called Anti-Imperialists declared that the policy pursued by the government to put down the rebellion and maintain law and order in all ter itories of the United States without regard to the time when such territories were acquired was imperialism, and that any use of the army to main tain law and order-however neces sary-was militarism, and that giving aid and comfort to rebels in arms taining the principles of the Declaration of Independence.

"Mr. Bryan's unparalleled campaign for the principles of the Chicago platform and his insistence upon the adoption of that platform at Kansas City induced the people to suppose the campaign of 1900 would be conducted on the issues of 1896. In this they were mistaken."

Senator Stewart then quoted Mr. Bryan's declaration of his intention If elected, to call an extraordinary session of congress to give the Philippines freedom upon the same terms as Cuba. He also denounces the recent convention of Anti-Imperialists at Indianapolis. He also denounces Mr. Bryan for promising to attempt to "extend the Monroe doctrine to the Orient."

Baden-Powell Reported Following Him Two Boer Defeats.

London, Aug. 21 .. - A dispatch from Pretoria eports that General DeWet appeared north of Comman Nek, 20 miles from here. He sent a flag of truce to General Baden-Powell demanding his surrender. This, however, was only a plan to discover the strength of the British force.

General Baden-Powell, seeing the ruse, and hoping to detain DeWet, asked what terms would be given if he surrendered. The messenger was equally sharp, and, having learned the strength of the garrison, returned to General DeWet, who at once resumed his march northward without the formality of sending his terms to the British. General Baden-Powell is following him.

General Roberts reported that General Carrington met and defeated a strong Boer force at Buffelshock, Au-

Swartz, one of the commanders, was severely wounded. The British losses were Captain Hanvey and two men killed and nine wounded.

Lord Roberts reported in a second dispatch that General Ian Hamilton occupied Oliphant's Nek on August 17 He captured two Krupp guns. Hamilton's casualties were three wounded. His advance troops under General Mahon engaged the enemy August 19 at Roode Kopjes, n the west bank of the Crocodile river. He had few casualties. Seven Boers and two wagons were captured.

ISAAC R. SHERWOOD.

General Isaac R. Sherwood was prominent as a lawyer, a soldier, a newspaper editor and a political leader during the last half of the century. He was for many years a resident of Williams county. He was born Aug. 15, 1835, and attended the Hudson River institute, Clarnack, New York. He graduated from Antioch college, Ohio, and later from the Western Law school at Cleveland, and was admitted to the bar and became a leading attorney. In 1857 he established the Williams County Gazette, a Republican paper, and in 1859 was elected probate judge of Williams county. At the beginning of the civil war, April 18, 1861, he enlisted as a private soldier in the Fourteenth Ohio volunteer infantry, resigning both the office of mayor of Bryan and the lucrative office of probate judge of Williams county for the pay of a private soldier. At the close of his first enlistment he was made a lieutenant in the One Hundred and Eleventh Ohio Volunteer infantry, and was promoted through all the grades to colonel of the regiment, and was brevetted a brigadier general for gallant conduct at the battle of Franklin, Tennessee. He participated in the first actual battle of the war at Phillipi and at the last at Raleigh.

He participated in more than thirty actions during his military career, and was repeatedly complimented for his soldierly conduct. He was appointed commissioner for the Freedman's Bureau of Florida in February, 1865, but resigned after filling the position for a few weeks.

He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Sixth district, Williams, Fulton, Henry, Wood, Lucas and Ottawa counties, and served but a single term. He had previously been elected secretary of state, in 1868, as a Republican, over Thomas Hubbard, Democrat, by a vote of 267,066 to 249,-682, and was re-elected in 1870 over William Heisley, Democrat, by a vote of 221,708 to 205,018.

He was an editor of prominence, and was editorially connected with a number of leading newspapers, among them the Toledo Commercial, the Toledo Journal, the Cleveland Leader and the Canton Democrat. In 1880 he severed his connection with the Republican and affiliated with the Democratic party. In the closing months of the century he is one of the recognized and prominent leaders of the Democratic party of the state.

LAWRENCE T. NEAL.

Lawrence T. Neal of Chillicothe, and at this time of Columbus, has long been among the foremost lawyers and Democratic leaders of the state, and was five times a delegate to the national Democratic conventions. He was born at Parkersburg, now West Virginia, Sept. 22, 1844, and was educated at a private academy in that city.

When 20 years of age he migrated to Chillicothe, Ross county, Ohio, where he studied law with Judge Safford, and was admitted to the bar in 1866. He was immediately chosen to the position of city solicitor. In 1867 he was elected to the house of the Fifty-eighth general assembly from Ross county, and refused a re-election.

He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Seventh district, Ross, Highland, Brown, Adams and Pike counties, and was re-elected to the Forty-fourth in 1874 from the same district. His ability in congress was fully recognized by his colleagues.

In 1893 he was a candidate for governor, and was defeated by William McKinley, Jr., by a vote of 433,342 to 352,347. In congress and on the political platform Mr. Neal was the champion of a revenue tariff as opposed to a protective tariff, and as a member of the committee on resolutions in the Democratic national convention at Chicago in 1892 he succeeded in having a clear and explicit declaration for a tariff for revenue only inserted in the

JAMES W. ROBINSON.

James W. Robinson of Marysville, Union county, was born on Darby creek, that county, Nov. 26, 1826. He was reared on his father's farm, and attended the public schools. He attended college at Cannonsburg, Pennsyl-Vania, in 1845. After leaving that institution he followed the profession of teacher for some years. He graduated from the Cincinnati Law school in 1851; was admitted to practice, and soon after was elected prosecuting attorney of Union county.

He was elected to the lower house of the Fifty-third general assembly from Union county, and was re-elected to the Fifty-fourth and Fifty-fifth. He made a creditable legislator. In 1872 he was elected to the Forty-third congress from the Ninth district, Union, Morrow, Knox, Hardin, Marion and Delaware, but was not re-elected. In politics he was a consistent and aggreslive Republican, and enjoyed the respect and confidence of his constituents.

HUGH J. JEWETT.

Hugh J. Jewett was born in Harford county, Maryland, in 1812, and died in the same state when past the age of 75. The most of his life, however, was passed in Ohio, at Zanesville and Columbus, where he was a leading lawyer, banker, railway president and promoter and Democratic leader.

He came to Ohio when a young man, and was admitted to the bar at St. Clairsville in 1840, where he began the practice of his profession. In 1848 he located at Zanesville, and entered the banking business, and was made president of the Muskingum branch of the State Bank of Ohio in 1852. He was a presidential elector in 1852, and supported Franklin Pierce for presi-

He was a member of the senate of the Fifty-first general assembly, and a member of the house in the Fifty-eighth, and in 1853 was appointed United States district attorney for the District of Ohio. In 1855 he entered upon his railway career, and became manager and afterward president of the Central Ohio road. He was subsequently connected officially with several of the leading Ohio railroads, in 1872 became receiver of the Erie road of New York, and managed its affairs for 10 years. as was a candidate for congress in 1800, but was defeated. In 1861 he was a candidate for governor, and was defeated by David Tod, Republican, by a vote of 206,997 to 151,774. He was an unsuccessful candidate for United States senator in 1863.

He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Twelfth district, Franklin, Pickaway, Fairfield and Perry counties, and resigned in 1874 to assume charge of the Erie railway. He retained his residence in Ohio until 1887, and then returned to his ancestral home in Maryland.

JOHN S. SAVAGE.

John S. Savage was born in Clermont county, Ohio, Oct. 31, 1841, and was reared on his father's farm. He attended the public schools and received a liberal education, after which he taught school successfully for a number of years, while he pursued the study of the law.

Having completed his legal studies, he was admitted to the bar in 1865, and began the practice of his profession in Wilmington, Clinton county, and quickly rose to prominence in his profession.

His election to congress was wholly unsought, and largely unexpected. He was a Democrat, and his district was overwhelmingly Republican. He accepted the nomination more to aid in maintaining the organization of his party than in the expectation of being elected. His opponent was John Q. Smith, the sitting member, and Mr. Savage was elected over him in 1874 to the Forty-fourth congress from the Third district, Clinton, Butler, Warren, Fayette and Clermont counties, by nearly 1,000 majority. At the succeeding congressional election, 1876, he was defeated by Mills Gardner, who served but a single term. Mr. Savage then resumed the practice of his profession.

It is rather a coincidence that of the four citizens of Clinton county, David Fisher, John Q. Smith, John S. Savage and Robert E. Doan, who were elected to congress during the century, and all of whom were men of more than ordinary ability, none served more than a single term.

MILTON I. SOUTHARD.

Milton I. Southard of Zanesville, now a prominent attorney in the city of New York, was born in Perryton, Licking county, Ohio, Oct. 20, 1836. He attended the public schools and graduated from Dennison university, at Granville in 1861. He read law and was admitted to the practice in 1863, locating at Zanesville. He was elected prosecuting attorney of Muskingum county three times, and was an exceptionally efficient officer. He enjoyed a large and lucrative practice.

He was a leading Democrat, and in 1872 was elected to the Forty-third congress from the Thirteenth district, composed of Muskingum, Licking, Coshocton and Tuscarawas counties; was re-elected to the Forty-fourth in 1874, and the Forty-fifth in 1876, from the same district.

He was a member of the committee on the revision of the laws of the United States, and chairman of the committee on territories. Colorado was admitted in 1876 on his report, and was the determining factor in the presidential election of that year. At the close of his congressional career, he located in New York, and was associated with General Thomas Ewing in the law practice.

JOHN BERRY.

John Berry of Wyandot was a well known and highly respected citizen of that community, and was sent to congress for a single term, as a recognition of the high esteem in which he was held by his fellow-citizens. He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Fourteenth district, Wyandot, Crawford, Richland, Ashland and Holmes. He was a Democrat; was a lawyer by profession, and was born in Crawford county, Ohio, April 26, 1833.

LAURIN D. WOODWORTH.

Laurin D. Woodworth of Youngstown occupied a prominent position in No. 25..... 500 a m. professional life in Mahoning and adjoining counties, and was a soldier during the civil war. He was twice elected to the state legislature and twice to congress, and in both instances served his constituents satisfactorily.

In 1867 he was elected to the Fifty-eighth general assembly, as a member of the senate from the Twenty-third Senatorial district, comprising the counties of Trumbull and Mahoning, and was re-elected to the Fifty-ninth general assembly from the same district in 1869.

He was elected to the Forty-third congress in 1872 from the Seventeenth district, consisting of the counties of Mahoning, Columbiana, Carroll and Stark, and was re-elected to the Forty-fourth from the same district in 1874. He was born in Windham, Ohio, Sept. 10, 1837.

RICHARD C. PARSONS.

Richard C. Parsons of Cleveland was born in New London, Connecticut, Oct. 10, 1826, and received a thorough education in the state of Massachusetts. He came to Cleveland in 1845, and continued to be one of its most prominent citizens for more than half a century. He read law and was admitted to the practice in 1851. He was one of the original Republicans, and served a number of terms in the city council, and filled other local positions. He was interested in all the public improvements and in many local enterprises, and enjoyed a lucrative law practice, taking rank among the foremost lawyers of the state.

He was elected to the Fifty-third general assembly from Cuyahoga county in 1857, and re-elected to the Fifty-fourth, and presided as speaker of the house in 1860-1861. In 1872 he was elected to the Forty-third congress from the Twentieth district, Cuyahoga county, and was defeated for re-election by Henry B. Payne.

He declined the position of minister to Chili; served one year as consul at Rio de Janeiro, and was collector of internal revenue at Cleveland. He successively refused the position of assistant secretary of the treasury and governor of Montana tendered him by President Andrew Johnson, declaring himself opposed to that gentleman's administrative policy. To emphasize these declarations he accepted the appointment, made by the justices, of marshal of the supreme court of the United States, which office he held from 1866 until he was elected to congress in 1872.

From 1877 to 1880 he was editor and part proprietor of the Cleveland Leader, and was a facile, forcible and brilliant editorial writer.

Maresca, While Intoxicated In Naples, Overheard to Make Such a Remark. Investigation by Taylor.

New York, Aug. 21.-Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Taylor left for Washington. While here he investigated the cases of the two Italians, Maresca and Guida, but refused to say anything before reaching Washing-It was learned that suspicion as to the coming of Maresca was inspired by rival detective bureaus, which were anxious to place the man under arrest on the strength of an anonymous that late Saturday evening a letter was received from Consul Byington. of Naples, enclosing a copy of a letter dated August 2, in which an anonymous writer stated that he had overheard a conversation between Maresca and another Italian in a saloon, during which Maresca, who was intoxicated. had said that he was about to sail for the United States to kill President McKinley. The consul added, according to Commissioner Fitchie, that he had cabled the information to Washington, and that he had mailed copies of the letter to various European ports and to ports of entry in the United States, giving a description of Maresca. Mr. Fitchie said in addition that not only were secret service officers informed of this matter, but the New York police had had information of it from the Paris police officials. Commissioner Fitchie refused to di-
